WELCOMED NEW PASTOR.

Catholic Congregation Held Reception at the Church Yesterday Evening.

Members of the Catholic congregation gathered at the church last night to welcome Father Tompkin, the priest who succeeds to the charge of the parish, and to say farewell to Father Feust, who has had charge of the flock for a few years. To more fully show their appreciation of him and to express the high esteem in which he is held by his parishioners, they presented him with a purse containing $100. The time was spent in discussing the future of the church in this city and in getting acquainted with the new pastor who arrived a few days ago.

It was a sad parting when the members of the congregation bade farewell to the priest who has been their spiritual advisor for the past three years and whom they have learned to love for his devotedness to purpose his unselfishness and his admirable character. Father Feust leaves in the morning for Colville, Wash., where he will have charge of a congregation.
