LAND OF SPORTS AND SCENERY

Klamath County's Lakes and Streams Are Alive With Trout and Water fowl While the Mountains Abound With Deer, Bear and Other Big Game

The Klamath region is destined to become the mecca of the Pacific Coast lover of outdoor sports and will be visited annually by thousands of tourists. Its chain of lakes, mountain streams and rivers are matchless among waters of the United States for trout fishing and unsurpassed for water fowl that occupy the marshes as hatching grounds. Waters most straight-away course of forty miles, with a variety of wealth of color in the bordering shoreland and picturesque islands. To the photographer, amateur or professional, appreciative of the beautiful in nature, the region offers boundless opportunity.

Crater Lake, with its National Park reservation, is reached best via of the lakes and rivers abound with the best species of trout and other game fish. In the forests of the mountains are found many species of wild game and fowl.

The basin is environed by snow-capped peaks of the Cascade Range, and to the southwest, at a distance of about seventy miles, Mount Shasta

Klamath Falls, and is numbered among the seven wonders of the world. This body of water is some twenty square miles in extent and lies in the crater of an extinct volcano with walls 2000 feet high surrounding it. Sounding snow the water of this lake to be over 2000 feet in depth. The mountain in which the northernmost peak of the Sierras, rears its white crest to an altitude of 14,440 feet. Mount McLaughlin (Mount Pitt) is the highest of the eminences to the north and west, being about 8,000 feet. There is no more attractive steamboat trip on the entire Pacific Coast than that on Upper Klamath Lake with an al-lake is situated rises some 8000 feet above sea level. The lake was first discovered in 1862, and for a long time was called "Lake Majesty," until the more appropriate name it now bears was applied to it. This is one of the places impossible to picture with pen or brush.

COMIC OPERA PINAFORE.

To Be Presented at the Opera House in This City.
The most elaborate musical event ever attempted by the people of this city will be the production of the comic opera Pinafore, the most popular of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas. It will be given on next Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

For the past two weeks many of the best singers in the city have been engaged in the preparation of the music and the dramatic action of the opera and all of the parts are in the hands of competent people who are interested in making it a success.

The choruses are snappy and are filled with bright melodies that make Sullivan's music so popular. The costumes are correct to represent the nautical scene, and the stage will be arranged, as far as it is possible, to represent the deck of the ship Pinafore. The following is the cast:
Josephine, the Captain's daughter Mrs. Don Zumwalt
Buttercup, a Bumboat woman Hebe, the Admiral's first cousin Miss Lota Nickerson
Sir Joseph Porter, the Admiral T. W. Zimmerman
Captain Corcoran, commanding Ship Pinafore Roy Walker
Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman Burge Mason
Dick Deadeye, able seaman W. H. Mason
Boatswain Geo. T. Pratt
Boatswain's Mate Dr. R. A. Heritage
Sergeant of Marines Mr. Jones
Midshipmate Archie Moore
Sailors, Marines, Sisters, Cousins, Aunts, etc.
Accompanist Mrs. Geo. T. Pratt
Director Martin E. Robinson
Scene: Quarterdeck of H. M. S. Pinafore.
Act I—Noon. Act II—Night.

Merrill. Property is reasonable.

Will Give $1000.

The statement has been made to customers of mine and others that I use wooden frame work on the inside of my ground glass monuments and tombstones. This statement is so ridiculous that it is hardly worth denying, especially to anyone who is at all familiar with ground glass work. I believe the statement has been made by enemies of mine to hurt my trade, and to show that the report is a lie, I am willing to give $1000 to the person who can find any wood in any of my monuments.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS

are Advancing in Value
When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.
These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
