---SALE---

Will be extended in order to give our customers and the people of the rural districts a chance to attend this money saving opportunity, numerous letters having been received from the farmers requesting an extension of time to give them an opportunity to attend. We will do this in order to close out the remaining odds and ends that are left over and to dispose of the big bankruptcy stock. Here then is a great opportunity to renew your wardrobes at sacrificial prices. We solicit your inspection and patronage.
