One of the O. K. Transfer company's teams had a smash up this afternoon. The team was driven by C. B. Hawthorne, who was unloading some roofing paper at Hurn's Hardware store. In starting the horses rumped the front wheels so that the tongue was broken. The team only ran about fifty feet when the wagon upset and they were stopped. Besides scratching one of the horses slightly the only damage done was to the tongue.

Another Portland Excursion

Klamath Falls is to have another big excursion from Portland. The excursion will leave Portland on a special train at 1:30 on Sunday, September 6th and will arrive in Klamath Falls Monday night. Portland has been flooded with circulars extolling the advantages and resources of Klamath and advertising the excursion.

M. L. Allison, who invested heavily in property in this county, on his recent trip, writes the Herald that fully fifty people have made arrangements to come on this excursion, and possibly seventy-five will be here.

The Godfrey Family.

The Godfrey family showed in town last night and will show again tonight with an entire change of program. The show last night was a grand affair with a program of singing and dancing, dramatic and comedy sketches, and the wonderful Serpentine dance, moving pictures and contortion work which is marvelous. The great Godfrey family gives the best show of any traveling show on the road and should be attended by all for they do not birk the people.—Big Valley Gazette.

The Godfreys will be at the Opera House tonight, tomorrow and Saturday night.

Our Great Clearance Sale Is Still IN FULL SWING
The Greatest Sale We've ever organized
When we launched this Sale we hadn't the floor space to display all the offerings we had gathered for this most important sale of the year. The departure of a great quantity of merchandise since the sale began enables us to now add this surplus and therefore, our stock is as complete as it was at the opening.
Those who have already attended can pay another visit with profit to themselves. Those who haven't been there cannot afford to stay away.
