MARIE McMILLAN LEADS IN CONTEST FOR QUEEN.

Below will be found the results in the Carnival Queen contest as taken up to 4:30 p. m. this evening. This does not include the total vote up to date as Mr. Brandenburg was unable to make a complete canvass of all the stores where the ballots are on sale. However, this can be accepted as about the correct standing of the different candidates.

Miss McMullan now leads in the contest by 13 votes. Miss Barnes drops to third place, but it is not expected that this young lady will remain in this place very long as she has a very strong following and her admirers are expected to come to the front and place her at the head of the list again. Miss Watson remains well up towards the top of the list and no doubt will poll a heavy vote before the contest is closed.

The public should take more interest in this contest. Great things are planned in honor of the Queen, and when the public witnesses the elaborate ceremonies in connection with the coronation, and attend the Grand Ball to be given in her honor, some people will regret their not giving their favorites better support.

There is a tendency on the part of the public to sit back and let the committee do all the work. This is not right and it is up to every patriotic citizen to get busy and do their part in making this affair a big success. They can do this, in one way, by casting a few votes for some of the young ladies entered in this contest. The ceremonies in connection with the coronation of the Queen and other incidental expenses, will amount to no small sum, so it is no more than right that the public, individually, cast at least a few votes in the Queen contest, and thereby assist the committee in their effort to give a successful fair.

Miss Marie McMullan	286
Miss Lyle Watson	273
Miss Goldie Barnes	246
Miss Louise Sargent	184
Miss Stella Campbell	131
Miss Lillian Stilts	122
Miss Mills	118
Miss Louise Lee	80
Miss Eliza Stilts	37
