SUMMONS.

Circuit Court of the State of Ore- , in and for Klamath County.

Elnora F. Boggs, Plaintiff, vs. Edward F. Boggs, Defendant. Summons.

To Edward F. Boggs, Defendant. In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 16th day of November, 1908, being the last day prescribed in the order for the publication of this summons, the first publication of which being on Friday, the 2nd day of October, 1908, and if you fail to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint filed herein, to wit:

That a decree be entered herein, in favor of plaintiff and against defendant, dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as may be meet to equity.

This summons is served by publication in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published in Klamath County, State of Oregon, by order of the Hon. George Noland, Judge of the Circuit Court for the first Judicial District of said State, under date of October 1, 1908, which order requires summons to be published for six successive weeks, commencing on the 2nd day of October, 1908, and ending on the 16th day of November, 1908.

PIERCE EVANS,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

—THE— KLAMATH IRRIGATION PROJECT.

By W. H. Heileman, U. S. Reclamation Service.

The Klamath Project has sufficiently progressed in the building of its irrigation system to invite settlement in a large way. The lands of this project were largely in private ownership before the time the Reclamation Service began its comprehensive scheme of irrigation development. Previous to the entrance of the government into this field, two small private irrigation districts existed on the project and the nucleus for farm settlement and town building was already established. Upon the advent of the Reclamation Service, adjustment was made of existing water rights in the district, and land in private ownership was subscribed to the project, in accordance with the terms of the Reclamation Act. At the present time there is but little land in the project open to homestead entry, and establishing a home generally entails the purchase of land from the present owner. The purchase of land in private ownership under a government project may be considered by many settlers as having material advantage over homestead entries on public land, as, for instance, the more rapid acquirement of title, though the water right obligations are the same in both cases. A person purchasing land from a private owner at once establishes sufficient title to obtain some credit at the local stores. Such a condition is not possible in homesteading.

Climate.

The climate of the Klamath Basin is semi-arid and in the main favorable. The rainfall occurs largely in the winter months, and averages about fourteen inches annually. Snow falls in winter, though no extreme periods of cold weather occur. The thermometer has registered at zero but few times in the past fifteen years. The summers are generally pleasant, with uniformly cool nights. The close proximity of the basin to surrounding highlands causes occasional late frosts in the spring and sometimes rather early fall frosts.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED EXTENSION OF SIXTH STREET.

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Klamath Falls, deems it expedient to extend 6th street from a point 35 feet South 51 degrees 4 min. E. of the southeasterly corner of block 104 to the city limits, a distance of 261 feet. To do so it will be necessary to appropriate a strip of ground belonging to E. B. Henry.

The city engineer has surveyed and platted the proposed extension and filed his report containing such plat and survey, with the Police Judge, said report being satisfactory to the Common Council, notice is hereby given that at the regular meeting of the Common Council on Monday evening, October 19th, 1908, an ordinance will be adopted embodying such report and within 60 days thereafter appraisers will be appointed to appraise the damages, if any, to said owner, E. B. Henry.

A. L. LEAVITT,
Police Judge.
