The following interesting and unique program is to be carried out at the institution of the Hillah Temple of Shriners in Ashland next month: The Imperial Potentate has commissioned Noble J. G. 30! Remember the number of 30—candidates is limited to thirty. Our choir will render the extremely difficult Ballads "Hot Time" "Sally in our Alley" (Oh! I guess not), with Nobles Briggs, Shepherd and Carter urging them on with tears in their eyes.

Here's one to our two near friends, Al Kader, Islam. May Allah bless them.

To the Candidates. Several Nobles are skilled Physicians and will be in attendance at all times.

Hang on to the Rope—You need not give the Grand Halling Sign of Distress. Everyone will see what's the matter with you.

Hang on to the Rope—Don't butt in; the Goat is instructed to do this; in doing so you interfere with the pleasure of the Goat, see!

Hang on to the Rope—Don't attempt to Boss the Job; remember we are doing this and you are paying for it; you Boss the next Job.

The snads are getting hotter, just think of the fun you will have in the next contortion act.

Any candidate lugging in any Back Talk will be promptly swatted. You are not on the Ground Floor in this delicious act therefore Hang on to the Rope.

"Oh, God," he cried in accents wild, "Shall I ever see my wife and child?" The Nobles yell "your only hope is Never to lose your hold on the Rope."

—Hoop-la.

Don't I wish my mother could see me. Refreshments will be served Catch-as-Catch-can; no Marquis of Gooseberry rules; expert carvers and caterers will be on hand and you can hit the Mahogany about 8 p.m. and make it perpetual. Light drinks will only be served. Orange Punch, Lemonade, Sakiyou, Colestein, Lithia and Sulphur Waters in the German Village and French Chateau.

E. A. SHERWIN, Ill. Potentate. Attest, Edward T. Staples, Recorder.

TAFT'S CHANCES VERY BRIGHT.

That William H. Taft has now 204 electoral votes and on the surface is creeping nearer every day to the goal of 242 electoral votes by which he will win the Presidency of the United States; that William J. Bryan is only sure at the present time of 161 electoral votes, and that if he is to be swept into the Presidency it must be by a landslide or rather an avalanche in the Middle West and in New York—is the deliberate opinion of the New York Herald newspaper, expressed in its issue of October 18, and just at hand.

This opinion is all the more noteworthy when it is remembered that the New York Herald is a newspaper of independent views with leanings—in this campaign—toward Mr. Bryan. The figures given are based on the Herald's own independent canvass conducted by its personal representatives, founded "on polls, reports, opinions, straw votes in theaters at New York, Baltimore, Md., St. Louis, Mo., Cincinnati, O., and Wilmington, Del.; wagers and general evidences upon which a newspaper must depend, outside of political committees, that are always biased."

This is the Herald's Presidential line-up, at present:

Total vote in Electoral College	482

Republican, reasonably sure	204
Democratic, reasonably sure	161
Doubtful, Republican leanings	68

October 11, the Herald classed Delaware as Republican, and Maryland as Democratic. Now, both these states are marked "in the balance."

Describing the shifting of states that has taken place in several days, the Herald has placed Idaho and Utah, with three electors each, and Wisconsin, with 13, to the Taft string, and has lifted Maryland, with eight electors, out of the Bryan column but has added to it Nevada, with her three votes. New York and South Dakota—with a total of 68 electors—are classed among the doubtful, with Republican leanings.

New York is stated to be the great center of the conflict at the very end of the campaign. Mr. Bryan, it is said, now realizes that he must have the 39 electoral votes of New York or he cannot be elected to the Presidency. Judge Taft, it is understood, realizes that if he loses New York he will lose his own state of Ohio, a large number of states in the Middle West, Delaware, Maryland and perhaps New Jersey and Rhode Island in the East, and will be defeated. The betting in New York favors Mr. Taft. It is significant that the Herald's polls in Maryland gave Mr. Taft a small majority, while the theater poll in Baltimore gave Mr. Bryan a small majority, negroes being almost excluded from this vote. The Baltimore negroes are almost solidly for Mr. Taft, and it is stated that 17,000 of these voters hold the balance of power in that city.

The Herald thinks that Mr. Taft will carry Ohio by 50,000. Straw votes in Maryland, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, New York City and New York, Cincinnati, Baltimore and St. Louis theaters gave Mr. Taft 17,397 votes, and Mr. Bryan 14,114 votes. The polls also showed that New York's theater-going public prefers Mr. Taft to Mr. Bryan, and Mr. Chanler to Mr. Hughes.

Freaks vs. Novelties

IF WE OFFERED YOU A SUIT WITH A SHEET IRON VEST AND BRASS CUFFS ON THE COAT, YOU'D LAUGH, AND SO WOULD WE—IF YOU HAD BOUGHT THAT KIND OF A SUIT. SOME MAKERS ARE FINDING A FEW SHORT-SIGHTED MERCHANTS WHO WILL OFFER THE PUBLIC THE HYSTERICAL CREATIONS WHICH THEY FOIST UPON THEM.

FRIEND MADE CLOTHES and ALMA MATER STUDENT STYLES are the most advanced styles made—they are the first to bring out the novelties of the looms and the dyers, while their own designing represents the newest ideas in tailoring. Every garment they make is intended for gentleman's wear—not for walking sign boards. If you want to be conspicuous, don't buy your clothes here—If you want your clothes neat, perfect fitting, stylish and in good taste we'd like to serve you. Our novelties are not freakish—and we show more of them than any store in the city.
