KLAMATH FALLS, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1908.

LORELLA NEWS NOTES.

Mr. Willey is canvassing for books. E. R. C. Williams and wife went shopping in Bonanza Monday. Jeff. Willson and wife were in Bonanza Monday. Campbell brothers killed hogs last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Williams visited at David Campbell's Sunday. Mrs. Haynes and Mrs. Parly are visiting Mrs. H. G. Bussey. Oscar Stewart, Mr. Gerber's foreman, returned from the railroad Sunday. Mr. Kimble and Mr. McGlasson passed through the valley on their way to and from Clear Lake dam. Frank Bryant and Leon Lewis of the Falls were up hunting Thanksgiving at E. R. C. Williams. Mr. Slack and two sons, of Bonanza, were up hunting in the valley last Thursday. James Seaton and Mr. Butler crippled a cougar last Wednesday but failed to get it. Mr. Burnham was doing business in Bonanza with the merchants last Monday. Wm. Pankey was trading in Bonanza Monday. We are glad to learn that James Malone, of upper Langell Valley, is recovering from his recent illness. George Noble and family returned from the Royston ranch Saturday. David Campbell is beating all the young sports. He killed seven geese at two shots. The students have purchased a basket ball and all are taking a great interest in the game. Alex. Noble was over to the East side of the valley Saturday getting grain of E. R. C. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Hart returned Sunday from Klamath Falls, after spending Thanksgiving with Mr. Hart's parents. Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Gunn entertained a number of friends Thanksgiving among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Lytle of Poe Valley. The students body met Friday afternoon electing Francis Graham as vice-president and, after attending to some other business, a short literary program was given. Several of our boys spent Thanksgiving day hunting ducks and geese but sorry to say, the game was too shy and most of the hunters returned with empty bags. Willis Weber died at Big Springs Hotel, Bonanza, Thursday morning, November 26th, of dropsy of the heart. The remains were interred in the Bonanza cemetery, by the Odd Fellows and Masons, last Friday. Mr. Pool, who is recovering from an attack of pneumonia, came up from Olene Sunday, to his daughter's Mrs. R. C. Cowley. He will remain here until he has fully recovered. The guests at David Campbell's on Thanksgiving were: Edward McBroon of Barnes Valley, Ed. Low, Albert Patterson, and Misses Welch and Rankin. Turkey, cranberry sauce, plum pudding and celery were served. Will Campbell, Fulah Rankin, and Edward McBroon attended the dance at Bonanza Thursday evening. They remained to attend the funeral of Mr. Webber, returning Friday evening.

FORT KLAMATH NEWS.

Harrison Gray, of Daley, was in the valley this week visiting his brother, Colbie Gray. Richard Melhase went to Klamath Falls Monday on business. O. B. Bunch returned Wednesday from a cattle drive to Merrill. The cold, clear weather has furnished fine skating. S. H. King is building fence for Mr. Ryan. An apology is due the readers of the Republican this week but as it is nearly bedtime and we have to wire this in, hence the wretchedly.
