SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath, Elvin M. Loomer, Plaintiff, vs. James M. Randle, Defendant. Summons.

To James M. Randle, Defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Wednesday, the 30th day of December, 1908, that being the date of the last publication of the summons in said suit and the last date within which the defendant therein is required to answer said complaint as fixed by the order for publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in such complaint, to-wit:

Quitting plaintiff's title to the following described real property: The West half of the Southwest quarter of Section Nine, the Southeast quarter of the Northeast quarter and Northeast quarter of the Southeast quarter of Section Eight, in Township Forty-one South of Range Seven East of the Willamette Meridian, in Klamath County Oregon, containing 160 acres of land.

This summons is published in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published at the city of Klamath Falls, in said County and State, by order of Hon. George Nolan, Judge of the above named court, such order being dated the 14th day of November, 1908; the first publication of this summons to be made on the 16th day of November, 1908.

THOMAS DRAKE, Attorney for Plaintiff, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

AT SETH'S SERENADE.

When Seth got married we had a bee, And went up to his house for a shivaree. Some took drums, and some took pans, And some took whistles, and some tin cans With strings in the bottom and rosin to rub, And they yowled like wildcats at every scrub. And the funnest noise that ever was made, Was the whooptedow at Seth's serenade. But we carried something beside the noise To that little home, we girls and boys, And after the bang, and fun, and din, Seth gave us an invite and we went in, And under each arm was a bundle hid— We loaded them down, that's what we did! Pounds of this and pounds of that— Bundles were big and bags were fat. And then the squire a speech he made For the rest of the crowd at Seth's serenade. "We're here to wish ye long life," said he, "And a way that is smooth and as straight as can be. Start every day as ye're startin' new With a smile on your face and a care-free brow. So I bring ye to-night— friends Seth and May— A can of the cheer that starts my day. Then he crowned the heap—he's a knowin' man— With a Chase & Sanborn coffee can. And before we left we had coffee made— 'Twas the best of the treat at Seth's serenade."
