AT SETH'S SERENADE.

When Seth got married we had a bee, and went up to his house for a shivaree. Some took drums, and some took pans, and some took whistles, and some tin cans with strings in the bottom and reson to rub, and they yowled like wildcats at every scrub. And the darndest noise that ever was made was the whoopedew at Seth's serenade. When we carried something beside the noise to that little home, we girls and boys, and after the bang, and fun, and din, with every day as ye're startin' now, and a smile on your face and a care-free brow. I bring ye to-night— friends Seth and I can be crowned the heap— he's a knowin' man— with a Chase & Sanborn coffee can. And before we left we had coffee made— was the best of the treat at Seth's serenade.
