MILLS ADDITION LOTS are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys

at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.

The Monarch is now agent for the Ileton Cream, the best condensed cream on the market. Also carry fresh butter, eggs and cheese.

Geo. T. Baldwin left this morning for Ashland where he will see that the boys from here and Lakeview do not miss anything that is coming to them at their initiation into the Elks' Lodge. From Ashland the Judge will go to Portland to attend the State Hardware Association meeting.

Have you tried one of those Sun Eagle cigars at the Monarch? The best five-cent cigar on the market.

A few of the things you can buy at the Monarch: Dried fruit, olive oil, mince meat, sauer kraut, salt fish, all kinds, canned goods, olives, canned meats, oysters, etc.

The Ashland Lodge of Elks will initiate a large number of men into the order tomorrow night. A party of eleven from Klamath Falls and Lakeview left on the boat this morning for Ashland to join the order. Those from this city were: Will Houston, Herb Baldwin, Dr. Hamilton, George Tugnot and Bert Childers. The party from Lakeview consisted of Harry Bailey, Dr. E. H. Smith, Dr. W. R. Boyd, A. L. Thornton, F. O. Hunting and Charles Arthur.

SHOCKS CONTINUE AT RATE OF TEN EVERY HOUR.

MESSINA, Jan. 7.—Earthquake shocks are still continuing here at the rate of about ten per hour. Fire also has again broken out, completing the destruction of the City Hall and the records stored therein.

A party of men under the direction of Major Landis, the American Military Attache at Rome, has been working for four days to extricate the bodies of A. S. Cheney and wife from the ruins of the American Consulate. The apartment of the Cheneyes has not yet been uncovered and many feet of wreckage still remain to be removed.

LANDIS WILL NOT HEAR CASE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Judge Landis has informed the District Attorney that he would not hear the second trial of the Standard oil case, but would transfer it to some other judge.

MATINEE FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN

There will be no performance at the Opera House this evening, but tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 the Biehls sisters will give a grand matinee for the school children of the city. The little girls have become great favorites among the people of this city, and are particularly pleasing to the children. This afternoon matinee is given so that parents will have an opportunity to take their children before the Biehls leave the city.

The matinee will also include a fine selection of moving pictures, among which will be the representation of the great Shakespearean masterpiece, "The Taming of the Shrew," which was recently produced by students of the High School. The admission price to the matinee, will be only ten cents.

REBEKAHS INSTALL OFFICERS.

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge held their installation of officers last evening at the A. O. U. W. Hall. After the business of the evening was transacted an elaborate banquet was served to the members by all of the Past Grandas of the lodge. The installation ceremonies were conducted by Ellen Pell, Deputy Grand President for this district.

The new officers are: Noble Grand, Laurinda Sauber; Vice Grand, Emily Farrar; Secretary, Lula Straw; Financial Secretary, Frances E. Boyd; Treasurer, Jennie E. Boyd.

DAMAGE TO TELEPHONE LINE NEARLY REPAIRED.

Manager Gates, of the Telephone Company, reports that the long distance phones are now in working order and that by night most of the city phones will be connected. The poles have been raised on Klamath street and some new ones put in, and the men are now finishing straightening out the wires. By tomorrow practically all of the telephones in the city will be in working order.

TEACHERS GO TO KENO.

All of the High School and Public School instructors with the exception of Miss Stella Campbell and Miss Drew, went to Keno this afternoon to attend the Teachers' Institute to be held there tonight and tomorrow. County Supt. J. G. Swan also went along with the party.
