I. D. Applegate arrived in the city last evening from the Lava Beds, where he has a large band of sheep. He states that there is plenty of feed in that section and that all of the stock is doing well. There has been much less snow in that section than farther north and the stockmen are hoping for a heavy snow to provide water for the stock and assure plenty of grass in the spring.

A few of the things you can buy at the Monarch: Dried fruit, olive oil, mince meat, sauer kraut, salt fish, all kinds, canned goods, olives, canned meats, oysters, etc. 20

JUSTICE MOORE NOW CHIEF.

Takes Place of Chief Justice Bean of State Supreme Court.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 11.—Justice F. A. Moore today became Chief Justice of the Oregon Supreme Court, succeeding Chief Justice Bean. Under the system of rotation in vogue in the Supreme Court of this state, Justice Eakin will succeed Justice Moore in two years.

POE VALLEY ITEMS.

Sam Dixon returned Monday from California, where he has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Alice Moore.

Elmer and Ellsworth Moore moved their cattle from Mrs. Hughes to their home place where they expect to feed them.

The wind storm Tuesday night blew down several of the telephone poles. Chas. Koster went to the Falls last Tuesday.

Raymond Anderson and Sam Dixon were riding for horses in the valley Saturday.

It has been a very stormy week but most of the farmers are pleased as they think it will be the making of crops this year.

Rev. Jay Haynes left Monday for Langell Valley, where he intends to help Rev. Norridge hold a series of meetings.

Esau Keck, James Short, William Griffith, Riley Haskins and Stephen Griffith worked Wednesday putting up telephone poles that had been blown down.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon and children have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Short.

Richard Pickett, of Sand Hollow, and Blanche Holmes, of this valley, were united in marriage in Klamath Falls Sunday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Holmes and the groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pickett. Their many friends extend to them their congratulations.

Miss Pearl McFalls is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Joe Taylor, and family.

NEWS FROM MERRILL VALLEY.

The Mutual Benefit Club gave a program Friday, January 8, in the Houston Opera House. It was not largely attended on account of sickness and bad weather. The following was the program rendered: Male Quartet.

Reading—Mrs. Parrish Solo—Mrs. Johnston. Lecture—"Machek" Rev. Johnston.

All the numbers were good. Benjah Rhodes was unable to perform her part on account of sickness and Mrs. J. G. Patterson was also unable to do her part on account of the sad news being received of the death of her brother.

We take note of the fact that our old friends, Ernest Taylor and Miss Eva Fogle, are married. More sidewalks are being laid in Merrill. W. F. Barrows is the contractor.

Mrs. Ben Graham and son left Wednesday for Montana on a visit. Tom Offield has left for Lower California.

Elmer Carr has been quite ill for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Bert Davis is very ill with typhoid fever. We hope for her early recovery.

Lewis Gerber's bungalow is finished and is furnished with Rhodes' best.

T. M. Durham, the city marshal, has been busy opening up drains to carry off the surplus water from the streets.

W. P. Whitney expects to leave for Cottage Grove soon to visit his wife and babies.

Yes, we noticed that load of furniture, John. The boys want to know if there's anything doing.

Robert Anderson has purchased the residence property of Ed. Duffy. Mr. Duffy expects to leave for Fort Klamath where he has purchased an engine and boiler and intends to go into the shingle and well business at that place.

A bunch of mules passed through this town last Friday en route for the I. S. Davis place to be fed for Wm. Davis.

W. F. Barrows talks of going into the brick business. This is what we need, for Merrill is a thriving little city. Watch Merrill grow.

Mrs. Morrey and daughter were in town shopping Saturday.

Riley Powers was absent from school last week on account of sickness. Hope he will be able to return Monday.

Essa Rathiff started to school last Monday. This makes one more pupil for our eighth grade.

Grace Barrows returned to school Monday after a stage of sickness. Herbert Fitch also returned.

Mr. Haskins has purchased the Geo. Offield place south of Merrill.

Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Dunlap were down from the Falls this week looking at some cattle. It is not known whether any purchase was made or not.

Abe Tenbrook passed away at the home of his son, A. R. Tenbrook, in this city, last Monday. His death was caused by a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Tenbrook was born near Rockland, Ind., August, 1822. He came to the Golden West in 1849 but was turned back at Bloody Point by some soldiers around the lake by way of Little Shasta. Some emigrants had been killed a while before this and he found out later that if they had not turned back they would also have been killed by the Indians. He was married in Jacksonville, Oregon, to Mrs. Harriet Featherplace. The deceased leaves to mourn his death his son, A. R. Tenbrook of this city, two other sons and a daughter, J. C. Tenbrook of Fort Stevens, Ore., W. A. Tenbrook of Bendon, and Mrs. N. H. Miller of Austin, Ore. The funeral services were held at the Tenbrook home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Anderson officiating. Interment was at Bonanza where a brother of the deceased lies buried.
