Albert E. Edler went to town Saturday.

Guido Memio, an Italian newspaper man of New York, is going to use his publications in the interest of inducing immigration to Seattle next year when there will be low rates as a result of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. Memio believes that thousands of his countrymen in New York in the crowded tenements could find their future homes in the rural districts of the West.

Attention is being called to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition in every piece of literature being sent out by the Soo line. The big western railroads are all advertising the Exposition to induce travel to the coast in 1909.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon, January 12, 1909.

A sufficient affidavit having been filed in this office by Mathias Armand contestant, against homestead entry No. 2765 (Serial No. 0964), made Sept. 15, 1902, for W $\frac{1}{2}$ W $\frac{1}{2}$ Sec. 28, T. 38 S., R. 10 E., by Eleanor S. Ogden, contestee, in which it is alleged that Ogden never settled upon said land within six months after making said entry as required by law; that said Eleanor Ogden never improved said land by erecting a dwelling house nor made any improvements whatsoever; that the said Ogden has wholly abandoned said tract and for more than six months since making said entry; that said entry is not cultivated as required by law or at all, and said Ogden is not at this time nor has he been living on said land during the past year; that said Ogden has wholly failed to reside upon, cultivate or improve said entry; that the alleged absence of said Ogden is not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as an officer, soldier or marine in any war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 3, 1909, before R. M. Richardson, U. S. Commissioner, at Klamath Falls, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on March 10, 1909, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Lakeview, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed January 7, 1909 set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

MILLS ADDITION LOTS are Advancing in Value

When blocks in Mills Addition were offered at bargain prices a number of shrewd investors bought; since that time values have increased materially.

These Lots are Bargain Buys at present prices, and there is every reason to anticipate an advance in prices. Remember these lots are FIFTY feet in width and ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY FEET deep—more than double the area of most town lots offered to investors.
