THE BOSTON STORE

The Largest and Best Store in Klamath County. The Store that Pays No Rent and Gives Its Customers the Benefit

Co-operative Improvement.
Aside from the uniform planting of street trees and parkway lawns or flower beds, nearly as good results may be obtained and the features mentioned greatly strengthened if some predominant plant could be placed in every yard. On the south side of streets running east and west hydrangeas could be used, as the houses would face north. Only one sort of plant should be so duplicated, or monotony might ensue. All that is needed is a more suggestion of harmony and one or two hydrangeas placed in each front or side yard, preferably not all in like positions. With other plants each owner should please himself. Such co-operation would go far toward making a town attractive and of course, interesting.

Not Merchandise.

Come in the room the fresh air craves
And opens up the wash
And, to your great annoyance, makes
A draft you cannot cash.

Fell Short.

"Jones inherited all of his talents
from his mother."
"At that he will never be as good a man as she is."

One Branch.

"Does your friend know anything?"
"He is well up in science."
"Professor?"
"Fugliat."

One Pleasing Quality.

"Did you have something to say to me?"
"Yes. Will you marry me?"
"I like your nerve."
"Glad you do, for it is the only thing
I have."

An Analogy.

"Are you thoroughly familiar with all the economic principles you advocate?"
"My dear sir," answered Senator Surglum, "a good book doesn't have to know the contents of a volume
by heart in order to sell it."—Washington Star.

The Fast Part.

III Tragedy—Did I understand you
to say Barnes is traveling in fast company
just now?
Lowe Comely—I said he was traveling with a fast company. That show he went out with his bustled
and trying to get home.—Catholic Standard and Times.

He Know.

The juvenile class had a lesson in which some reference was made to "a ferocious Gaul." "Now," said the teacher, "can any of you tell me what a ferocious Gaul is?"
"I can," said the small boy at the foot of the class. "It's a terrible lot of cheek."—Detroit Tribune.

The Aunt and the Burglar.

Miss Rattle—Yes, that's a photo of my maiden aunt. Perhaps you saw her name in the papers last winter.
She frightened away a burglar.
Mr. Winkler (closely inspecting the portraits)—Did she? Well, I don't wonder at it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Lakeview, Oregon,
March 4, 1909.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by James E.

Paddock, contestant, against homestead entry No. 3519 (Serial No.
9255), made Nov. 6, 1905, for S 1/2
NE 1/4, Sec. 19, N 1/2 NE 1/4, Sec. 30, Tp.

contestee, in which it is alleged that said Castell has totally abandoned
said land for more than six months
last past and continues now to abandon the same, and has never established residence thereon or cultivated
any portion thereof, and the defects
herein set forth continue to this date,
and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond, and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock
a. m. on April 15, 1909, before R. M.

hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a.
m. on April 29, 1909, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Lakeview, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed March 2, 1909, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice
be given by due and proper publication.

J. N. WATSON,
Register.
