YONNA VALLEY ITEMS

Henry Meyer was in Dairy Saturday.
Chas. Carlson and M. P. Nelson went to the Falls Monday. Mr. Nelson will remain at the Falls, where he will do some carpenter work.
Miss Nellie Miles from Hildesbrand walked to the Shook ranch Saturday, where her mother is working. She returned Sunday, accompanied by her mother, who came to attend the party at Manuel Vierra's.
Godfrey Beck and W. M. Sims went to Bonanza on Tuesday.
John and Carl Ritter were riding for horses Saturday.
J. G. Wight returned from the Falls Monday evening.
Louise and Joseph Fischer visited at the Fitch ranch Sunday.
Jerry Pearson and Joe Welch, who are working on the road near Yainax, stayed all night at Geo. Ritter's place Monday.
Miss Clarke, James Logue, Ludwig Stenzel, Orin McCumber, Ernest Nail, Pat Colahan and Emil Fischer were Dairy visitors Saturday.
A. G. Anderson and E. Arndt of Dairy were hauling wood last week.
Orin McCumber was riding for horses Saturday.
Roy and Dock Pool and Ed. Wiggin were at Trout Creek last week.
A dreadful wind storm prevailed in Yonna last Saturday.
Chas. Drew was riding on the Reservation the past week.
Geo. Ritter went to the Falls on Monday.
Mrs. Godfrey Beck is visiting at the home of Mrs. L. A. Stenzel this week.
Mrs. Etna Randies went to Bonanza Tuesday.
John Anderson went to the Shook ranch Sunday to get a horse.
Mr. Vierra is having bad luck with his crops this year again. He is sowing the Fisher field over on account of the wind blowing it out.
John Ritter is hauling the next year's supply of wood to the Hildesbrand school; J. Harris is piling it up.
Chas. Hughes and wife stayed at Mr. Vierra's one night this week. They were on their way to Ashland, where the latter will remain. When the former returns he will bring a load of grain for some men at Bly.
Mr. and Mrs. Adams and Mr. Phillips were guests at the Fitch home Sunday.
Mrs. L. M. Fitch was in Dairy on Wednesday.

The Wrong Guess

"Was only a gin, fuzzy and bent, placed on a chair by Willie Dent. On the teacher's face there was a frown as he made a bluff at sitting down. Willie whispered, 'I know one thing—There's sure to be an early spring.' But the teacher saw, and a surprise was due for a bit of Willie's skin. For the teacher got into the game, and Willie for a while walked lame. Instead of spring, for Willie Dent it proved the winter of discontent."
—St. Louis Republic.

A Little Learning

Eight-year-old Bessie had just returned from school with her little brother. She had had that day her second language lesson, during which the teacher had explained, among other things, the meaning of the words "terra firma." Bursting into the family sitting room, the little girl exclaimed with great enthusiasm:
"I just wish you'd look at Ned, mamma. He fell down, and his new suit is spattered all over with rice vermicelli."
—Woman's Home Companion.

The Sauerkraut Trust

By unanimous consent
Trust men smile 'bout all the while
At the picture they bestride.
Organization a realization;
Trust controls output of nation.
Constitution: Disruption.
By some cheap process solution.
Lovely scheme, not a dream;
Trust men get all the cream.
—Milwaukee Journal.

Horse and Horse

The Village Grocer (perchance)—Look here, Aaron! What makes you put the big apple in the top of the bar?
The Honest Farmer (cheerily)—What makes you comb that long scarp lock over your bald spot?—Pack.

The O'lympic Games

In our great Olympic games
winners bear such classic names
As Firas, O'Brien, Murphy, Dwyer,
O'Leary, Hanaway and Hoyle.
So subtle the Greeks meant to spell
the name with both cap O and L, an apostrophe between,
in honor of the shamrock green.
—The Waterman in Pittsburg Post.

Two Regrets

"Wickie, that umbrella you lent me yesterday looked so badly that I got soaked going home."
"Yes, and that cigar you gave me drove the other members out of the club."
—Judge.

There's the Rub

It is easy enough to be pleasant
When life goes on like a song.
But the man worth while is the man who can smile
When the telephone rings, and he answers it and says "Hello," and the operator says, "What number?" and he says, "The bell rang, and she says, 'No, it didn't.'"
—New York Evening Mail.

White Wheat Bears.
I must not throw upon the floor
The crust I do not eat.
For many a hungry millionaire
Would think it quite a treat.

Shew! Our tears fall thick and fast;
They dim our eyes for old times sake;
No more we know, except in dreams,
The biscuits mother used to make!

One a penny, two a penny,
But cross hands,
Such one costs a dollar straight,
Now the rhyming runs.
—Sis A. Fanning in New York World.

Progress Impeded.
First Member—Mrs. De Sreek didn't have her way at the dress reform meeting this afternoon, did she?
Second Member—No; her gown fitted her so tightly that she couldn't make a motion.—Pack.

Runs Smooth

"Mr. and Mrs. Jyones never quarrel, do they?"
"No; neither of them has the artistic temperament, and they have never claimed to be afflicted."
—Boston Globe.

Test

"Look in my eye," he said, "my own!"
She looked. Her eyes dropped low—
Sweet June lids, so violet grown
A hundred years ago.

And here today the little Lisette
In challenge lifts her eye.
They fall—love's spell is potent yet
Through all the gay disguise!
—Ada Foster Murray in New York Sun.

Spring Fever

Wherever there lies an open field
And cometh therefrom a lot of noise
You'll find without any trouble at all
A lot, a hail and a raft of boys.
—R. L. Ashmun in New York Telegram.

Judges

"My wife and I always settle our little disputes by arbitration."
"And who is the arbitrator?"
"My wife, of course."
—Town Topics.

Their Disadvantage

"I like the Teddy bears the best."
"I like mine with a string."
"If Billy Fossom can bear a ten,
But you see they cannot hug."
—Smart Set.

Just So

"I'm going to write a story about a yellow candle."
"Going to take a dip into literature, so to speak."
—Washington Herald.

The Chief Requisite

A man may tell to build a house
And pay in small deposits,
But his wife will sick unless
There's forty-seven closets.
—St. Louis Republic.

Interested Party

Johnny—Why do you want your father to be a detective?
Freddy—For some a gun shouldn't hurt so.—Pack.

Baseball Altruism

Though visitors may win a game,
Let not the thought annoy,
Somewhere each club's a home team;
Somewhere the news brings joy.
—Milwaukee Journal.

Filling Up

"Don't you eat three meals a day?"
"I do now. We are house-keeping, and I eat downtown."
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sure Sign

Lo, every sign has faded
To tell us spring is here
But the early rising man
Beating carpet in the mart!
—New York Telegram.

Diagnosed

"Is golf a game or a science?"
"Neither. It is a disease."
—New

Springtime is Here

Spring is here and right now is the time to make things grow. The trees and the bushes need pruning, the dead limbs should be taken off, and the garden and lawn will amply repay you for a little attention now. Good workmen use good tools, and those are the only kind we carry. Let us suggest GARDEN BARROWS, GARDEN and LAWN RAKES, SPADES, SPADING FORKS, SHOVELS, TROWELS, PRUNING SHEARS, SAWS AND SPRAY PUMPS. Briefly, everything to make the lawn, garden and shrubbery beautiful for the coming year.
