Women's World.

His married women have been admitted to the bar in New York city. The national suffrage convention for 1909 will be held at the Alaska-Yukon-Idaho exposition in the first week in July. One day of this week will be observed as woman's day.

Patents for inventions relating to flying machines have been applied for by British women, and they have also directed inventive attention to railroad cars and to wireless telegraphy.

Natural Amenity.

A very talkative little boy was allowed to accompany his father to a friend's house on the understanding that he should not speak until somebody asked him a question. He remained silent for half an hour. "Father," he then murmured, "when are they going to begin asking me questions?"

London Pavements in the Old Time.

Occasionally a side pavement added to the comfort of the foot passengers and spared them the necessity of floundering through the deep mire of the roadway. These pavements, however, were only partial, and passengers made use of the highway, soft with mud and silt thrown from the houses and abstracted with heaps of manure. The latter animal was so useful a scavenger and could be kept at so little expense as to account for the pavements which stood in the main streets of all our towns, even in London. When a royal procession was expected to pass along the narrow roadway dogs and pigs were driven indoors and gravel was thrown down to make the road passable. Usually, however, the streets were left in their primitive sordidness.—Dunston's England in the Fifteenth Century.

The ritual of society, as women make it, is very exacting the world over, even in almshouses. The London Outlook reports a serious trouble among a set of workhouse officials. The infirmary nurses, three in number, had demanded a separate sitting room and the delight of Sunday dinner therein, and the matron had sought to humble them by sending the cook to enjoy her Sunday dinner in their company. The brawny cook described what occurred as follows: "Well, Nurse Blank, she come down and got inside the door. 'Four covers?' she says. 'Four?' Who's the fourth?' 'Me,' says I. 'You?' she says, and with that she tosses her head and walks away."

Here the cook drew a long breath, then continued, "If it hadn't 'a' been Sunday, gentlemen, I should have let her have it for sailing me you!"

The Plain Part of it.
"Did the young man they caught in fraudulent transactions speculate much?"
"I dunno about that, but he stole a lot."—Baltimore American.

She Speaks Just.
"You aren't earning very much."
"But, my darling, two can live as cheaply as one."
"I don't yearn to live cheaply, young man."—St. Louis Republic.

Instinct.
"What is instinct? It is the neighbor tendency to wan when filled with dismay to turn to his wife."—Mrs. Dostoy.

Great Success.
"Were the amateur theatricals good?"
"Splendid! I never saw anything worse."—Life.

He doubles his troubles who borrows tomorrow's—Spanish Proverb.

Was Watched.
"Walk in?"
"Yes."
"Why didn't you take the train?"
"The owner was looking."

Adjustable.
"What tunes does your band play?"
"It plays only one tune. You can call it what you please."

Springtime is Here

Spring is here and right now is the time to make things grow. The trees and the bushes need pruning, the dead limbs should be taken off, and the garden and lawn will amply repay you for a little attention now. Good workmen use good tools, and those are the only kind we carry. Let us suggest GARDEN BARROWS, GARDEN and LAWN RAKES, SPADES, SPADING FORKS, SHOVELS, TROWELS, PRUNING SHEARS, HAWS and SPRAY PUMPS. Briefly, everything to make the lawn, garden and shrubbery beautiful for the coming year.
