

WATER CARNIVAL SHOULD BE MADE AN ANNUAL EVENT

Klamath Falls Can Be Made Famous By Its Yearly Water Festival--This Year's Event Shows Future Possibilities

BARBECUE ALSO DECIDED SUCCESS

Between Five and Six Thousand People Were Served Yesterday Afternoon.

Chamber of Commerce, we salute the people of the city, produced by the remarkable success that crowned the first of this organization in carrying out the program of the Railroad Day. Many celebrations have been held here in the past, but nothing has ever approached that of yesterday.
The growing feature of the day was the water carnival of the evening. and it was a fitting climax to a day filled with pleasure and punctuality from start to finish.

"We have at last found something that is going to make this city famous," said one of the leading citizens of the town today. "The various events of the coast have their particular celebrations each year, but it only with Klamath Falls to have its year carnival and outlive all of the entertainments on the coast each year. Could anything have been more beautiful than the spectacle witnessed last evening? And yet it was happiest to what it can be in the future. The blending of the lights, the maneuvering of the launches, the decorations on the barges, all added to the beauty and brilliancy of the evening and set a model on which future events of this character may be patterned." The truth of these remarks is made more forcible when it is considered the great variety of designs that may be carried out.
Flags, animals, the different celebrations—all of these and more—may be constructed and illuminated by the simple designs in lanterns. The lake could be strung with small electric lights encased in the lanterns of the designs and would form a spectacle that would be the most gorgeous thing imaginable. To the Chamber of Commerce must for all time remain the credit for the inauguration of this new idea of entertainment, and the best compliment that can be paid this organization is for the business men to insist that future events are conducted under its auspices.

The best evidence as to the worth of success of any one thing must come from a man who has had experience with the particular subject in hand, and on the question of the barbecue the remarks of William Pitts can be quoted without further comment.

"For many years I have attended barbecues in the South—the home of the barbecue. I have been to large ones and small ones, good ones and bad ones, but I had to wait until I came to Klamath Falls before I attended one that was a success in every particular. Nothing was overlooked, and the comfort of every man, woman and child was attended to with a care and fidelity that bespoke careful preparation and indefatigable labor. The committee in charge of this part of the program may well feel proud of the result of its labors."

Between 5,000 and 6,000 people were served, the bill of fare consisting of meat, beans, bread and coffee.
Booths near at hand supplied for a small charge salads, cake and plastic cream and sherberts. There was an ample supply of everything, and when the entertainment was over the Indians were given what remained over, which represented a good supply. The meat was cooked to perfection, and many were the compliments passed on the coffee and beans. There was no crowding and no inconvenience and the service throughout was most excellent.

Of one thing the city may be proud —in addition to the success attending the celebration—that there is an organization here into whose hands future events of a similar nature may be entrusted with confidence.
Doubtless such duties would be accepted with some reluctance, but it is believed that this can be overcome, especially in view of the fact that the people of this city thoroughly appreciate the work done, and will undoubtedly stand ready to finance anything of this character that the Chamber may see fit to handle.

ATTRACTIONS AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, June 15.—Whisked through mountains at lightning speed on the scenic railway, rolled down a steep incline in a tub, one minute surrounded by savage Igro-notes, the next lost in an Egyptian pyramid, the visitor at the Pay Streak of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition at Seattle has a lifetime of experience in an hour or two.

To anyone who is bored with life and wishes new sensations, the Pay Streak is "Paradise now." If it is speed he wishes, there is the pneumatic tube railway, where he is shot through a half-mile of underground tube in half a minute.

For the brave there are the Foolish House and the Mountain Slide.
In the first the victim stands on his head one minute and on his feet the next. His hat is suddenly swept from his head and while he is vainly searching for it, it comes back as suddenly as it went and lands at his feet. In the Mountain Slide, with a piece of carpet as a seat, the visitor glides through wild canyons and mountains at ticklish speed.

Entering the Battle of the Monitor and Merrimac, a panorama of the first battle of ironclads is realistically before him. In like manner the famous Battle of Gettysburg is portrayed.

Real Alaska "fairies" waits with you in the Klondike dance hall, but you buy "soft" drinks.

The Eskimo village takes the visitor on a journey through the wild north. The next stop is the Trip on the Yukon, where a boat is furnished and in a twinkling the scene is changed to a broad panoramic river.
The Streets of Cairo, Dixieland and Gay Paree furnish a touch of high life for all. The noise, the crowds and the excitement of the Pay Streak make it an immensely popular place.

ONE COMFORT.

Dick was a very clean little boy, and dirt disgusted him. One day he found a poor little starved kitten crouching in a ditch at the roadside and he brought the wet, muddy little wail home with him.

He took it to the hydrant and carefully rinsed off all the mud, but the shock was too great for the sick kitty and the breath of life departed.

Dick brought her to his mother, who exclaimed at the sight of the wet, drooping kitten. "Why, Dick, what have you done?"
"She was all mud, and I washed her," Dick replied. "Oh, Dick," his mother said sorrowfully, "I'm afraid she's dead." Dick looked shocked and grieved for a moment, then his face lighted up with a gleam of comfort as he exclaimed:
"Well, she died clean, anyway."

ENOUGH TO SCARE ANY ONE.

While out walking with her papa and mama one day, Florence, aged four, ran some little distance ahead.
As she got near a mule hitched to a farmer's wagon the animal began to bray. She wheeled instantly, and running to her mother as fast as she could go, said in round-eyed astonishment, "Oh, mama, sumfin said sumfin!"

Ladies, have you seen the Harrington Washing Machine? Call B. F.
Allen, Marshall House. He will come and do your washing free. Try it. 1

LAKEVIEW TOO MUCH FOR KLAMATH FALLS

There were 770 paid admissions to the ball grounds yesterday afternoon to witness the game between Lakeview and Klamath Falls. This does not represent the total number of spectators, as there were many not being familiar with the gate entrance who took a short cut and did not come in contact with the ticket man. There was no question but what everyone got their money's worth whether they paid or not, as it was a real exciting game.

The final score, which was 11 to 4, does not exactly represent the difference in the two teams, although unquestionably Lakeview had the stronger bunch. They secured several runs which they were not entitled to on account of errors by the home team.

The Lakeview boys left for home this morning, as it was impossible for them to remain over for the end of the series. They will be conceded the championship, as it is admitted that the other teams are hardly in their class. The Bonanza and Klamath Indians played this afternoon, although they were a little handicapped on account of the dampness of the grounds.

GUN CLUB SHOOT.

The trap shoot given by the Crater Lake Gun Club attracted a great deal of attention yesterday and competition was keen among the contestants.
Each participant was given fifty birds and while no records were broken the results were very satisfactory when it is considered that this is the second shoot of the season and that the contestants have had very little practice. The result of the shoot was as follows:

C. McDonald, 45; H. P. Hoey, 42; Guy Childers, 41; Ike Hampton, 35; W. S. Mead, 35; Wm. McCullum, 34; E. W. Muller, 34; E. Jacobson, 22.
There were three cash prizes for the winners in the shoot—$15, $7 and $3. The successful contestants were C. McDonald, H. P. Hoey and Guy Childers.

SOCIALIST LECTURE TO-NIGHT.

George F. Hibner, Socialist candidate for governor of Kansas, will speak this evening at the Courthouse grounds on "Socialism as a World Movement." No one can afford to remain ignorant in regard to the greatest political movement in history or the program of a political party which has a dues-paying membership that increased from 10,000 in 1904 to 40,000 in 1908 and cast half a million votes at the last presidential election.

PLANNING LOCATION OF THE CRATER LAKE HIGHWAY

TWO ACCIDENTS YESTERDAY.

Only two accidents occurred yesterday to mar the pleasures of the celebration. The first was during the parade, when an ill-advised race by some of the horseback riders occurred on Main street. Two horses ridden by young ladies were frightened and ran into a light decorated buggy driven by Mrs. Zim Baldwin, resulting in considerable damage to the buggy, but fortunately no one was injured.

The second accident occurred in the evening, when the carriages were returning from the 6:30 train. The Livermore Hotel bus, driven by Joe Moore, was upset in the east end of town and a number of the passengers injured, although none seriously. Mr. Moore is considered one of the best and most careful drivers in the city, and he naturally feels very bad over the accident. In the rush to make the trip by the time the ball game and the circus were out, all the teams were driving fast. The bus was heavily loaded and it was a wonder that more were not injured.

E. H. Raymond of Marshfield had his shoulder dislocated and was taken at once to the Klamath Hospital, where he received medical attention. Others receiving injuries were Dr. and Mrs. Rohm and Joe Hoefel of Redding.

SIEMORE TO ENGAGE IN MERCANTILE BUSINESS

Dan Ryan of Fort Klamath has sold his store to Lindsay Siemore.
Mr. Ryan has been in the mercantile business for a good many years and enjoys an extensive patronage. Mr.
Siemore is interested in one of the biggest livestock companies in Wood rivr, and is one of the most successful men of that section. His popularity and wide acquaintance will assure him success in his new vocation.

IT SHOCKED THEM.

Two small children, hearing older persons refer to the cat's tail as his ebenezer, came home from church one day very much chagrined, saying, "The choir sang a dreadful song, but we did not take any part." On being questioned it was found they had sung that good old hymn, "Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer."

A YOUNG HERO.

During the daily bath of two young sons, ages two and three and a half, the mother was suddenly called to the telephone. On her return she found them both out of the tub, thoroughly excited. Thereupon the older one exclaimed:
"Harold was about to go down in the hole, but I got him out, mummy, I got him out!"

NOT LIKE PAPA.

A bright little fellow was taken to a barber shop for the first time to have his hair cut, and as the barber was in a distant part of the shop for a few moments the small customer said in lowered tones to his father:
"Papa, you must tell the man that I am not to be shaved."

HIS TRANSFORMATION.

Little Harold, aged six, felt very proud when he donned his first pair of trousers. Taking his three-year-old brother behind the door he was overheard to say, "Willie, Willie, do you remember me?"

John Gill, representing J. K. Gill Stationery house of Portland, has been in the city for a few days enjoying the celebration and getting acquainted with the trade. Mr. Gill was formerly a member of the State Legislature.

Found—Baby's gold ring, with small set. Owner can have same by calling at Herald office and paying for this notice.

Morey L. Applegate is in the city for a few days from the Lava Beds, taking in the celebration and meeting old friends.

culture, Who Will Select the Route, Is Now In the City

SNOW'S GREATER SHOWS.

The first circus to exhibit in Klamath Falls gave two performances yesterday to crowded houses. The different acts went off with a dash. The children were delighted with the tricks of the dogs and ponies, while the daring feats of the trapeze artists and other acrobats filled the spectators with awe and astonishment.

The show will give their last performances this afternoon and evening and we bespeak a rare entertainment for those who attend.

UPPER LAKE NOTES.

Steamer Hooligan took a logging donkey engine up the lake for Long Lake Lumber company on Saturday.
Steamer Mazama sustained some injury to one of her propellers on her last trip down and is now on the ways for a few hours in consequence.

INDIAN WAR DANCE.

The Indian war dance did not come off last evening as scheduled, but this interesting event will be given this evening at the baseball grounds. The dance will begin at 6:30. This will be well worth seeing.

The pioneers of Klamath county had a very interesting time in their reunion yesterday. The names of 183 were received who located here during and prior to 1897, and it is probable that there is a large number who were not present. O. A. Stearns has the distinction of being the oldest settler in residence. He located in Klamath county in 1867. John M. Corbell and Stephen Stukel came here the following year, in 1868.

Lost—Between Eleventh street and the Livermore Hotel, a pair of spectacles, with one bow gone; in case, Finder will leave at Livermore Hotel and receive reward. Mrs.
Rohm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Chambers, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R.
S. Smith, left this morning for their home at Eugene.

"The Squaw Man" was played to a crowded house last night and the Iles Company won many new friends in their fine presentation of this Western play.

Lost—On circus grounds, a long, gray purse, containing change in silver. Finder will please notify this office.

The tennis tournament had to be postponed on account of the rain.

ONLY THREE OF COMMISSIONERS

Route on West or East Side of Lake Being Discussed—Latter
Most Desirable.

Engineer Heidel of the Department of Agriculture arrived in the city last evening. Mr. Heidel is the engineer who will have charge of the selection and laying out of the Crater Lake road through the forest reserve.
A meeting of the Crater Lake Road Commission was slated to meet in this city to-day, but as there are only three members present—Dr. J. M.
Keene of Medford, George T. Baldwin and L. F. Willis—an informal meeting was held and an adjournment taken.

Mr. Heidel has made a trip part way over the route of the road from Medford to the lake, and it is his intention to go from Klamath Falls to Crater Lake. If he finds that the snow in the park is too deep at the present time he will return later to make the trip.

One of the most important locations to be made is that of the road from the lake through Klamath county. There is some difference of opinion as to whether the road should be located on the east or west side of the lake, the general opinion, however, favoring the east side. The people of Wood river are very anxious that the road be built down the center of the valley so that it will touch at Fort Klamath, and there would probably be an advantage in this, in that it would be more permanent than a road built along the foot of the mountains.

It is conceded that a road along the east side of the lake would better accommodate the large number of tourists, as practically all of them coming to this section will visit the resorts on the lake. With the road on the east side, stops can be made without any inconvenience. Another advantage would be that the road would traverse a greater portion of the forest reserve, and a great deal of work in securing rights-of-way would be eliminated.

Charles Graves is in the city from Odell, the farthest postoffice from Klamath Falls in the county.
