Empty Ideals.
"Arthur, dear, why do you keep that cheap plaster cast of Venus eternally on your mantel?" asked the artist's bride.
"It is to retain my ideals of you, love," answered the artist, "to retain the one impression I had before discovering the proportionate elements of thin, slender, hot excelsior, horsehair and cotton batting in the modern female figure."—Puck

But He's Scarce.
It is easy enough to be pleasant. When life goes along like a breeze. But the man who is rare is the one who won't swear when a trout wriggles off from his hook.

It is easy enough to be pleasant. When your dress is both heavy and bright. But the fellow worth while is the chap who can smile after fishing all day and no bite. —Boston Herald.

On His Birthday.
He—The worst thing about me is my nose; I've got such a beauty one.
She—You shouldn't say such things about a gift.
He—A gift? I—ah—don't understand.
She—Wasn't it a birthday present?—New York American.

Irony of Fate.
Oh, when we dodge a runaway and stop to thank the fates. Who trips us up that very day? The kid on roller skates!
And when we dodge the motor cars and motorcycles thick. Who makes us see so many stars? The kid with the horseay stick! —Chicago News.

The Serene Scorer.
"So that policeman held you up again?"
"Yes," answered Mr. Chuggins. "I think it's a case of professional jealousy. He's annoyed because my automobile can go faster than his bicycle." —Washington Star.

Pride's Fall.
She swept along the dusty way with nodding plumes and garments gay. Her chin was tilted with an air that caused the rabble rude to stare. She was fashioned like a star! Her store hair bobbed around her hat. But, ah, how futile seemed her brow! She'd left the price tag on her gown! —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not That.
Aspiring Southerner (greeting)—I know well enough you think my writing is a joke.
Manager—Oh, no, my dear young lady! Anything but that. It's a tragedy! —Chicago Tribune.

Poor Pal.
Happy backs the parties. And never backs them tight. Muste backs a bridge whilst club. That has a game each night. Ma she backs the suffragettes. And pa, like all husbands. Stays home and leads the simple life. And meekly backs the checks. —Detroit Tribune.

Precedence.
"Every time the baby looks into my face he smiles," said Mr. Meekton.
"Well," answered his wife, "it may not be exactly polite, but it shows he has a sense of humor." —Washington Star.

With the Procession.
It is easy enough to be pleasant. And look at the world with a smile. Providing that you possess now a few of the clothes that are counted in style. —Indianapolis News.

The Rush to the City.
"Willis, how come you to leave the farm and move to town to make your living?"
"I got tired of the smell of dad's automobile." —New York Life.

Decadent Verse.
Ow! The Nothing's it is. Running To Level Down. Blame, Now. —Lippincott's Magazine.

Handicapped.
"He has a brilliant future ahead of him."
"I believe it. But he's so slow that he'll never catch up with it." —Cleveland Leader.

Convenience.
I love the "honk" that motors sound. Of care it will acquit me; it leaves no need of looking round. To ascertain what hit me. —Washington Star.

Another Query.
Little Willie—Say, pa!
Pa—What is it, my son?
Little Willie—Do they raise chicory in a henery?—Boston Globe.

Reward of Merit.
The pitcher passed a man to first— "Take out the lanky hurler!" He struck the next two batters out— "Ain't he the demon twirler?" —Chicago Tribune.

Clever.
"He's really very clever."
"Bo?"
"Yes; he can sharpen a lawn mower." —Detroit Free Press.

Wayward Willie.
Willie walked upon the face of his baby sister Ruth. Mama said, "I'm 'fraid you will stub your toe against her tooth." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not in the Curriculum.
"What course is Richard taking at college?"
"The downward. I think." —Kansas City Times.

No Excuse For It.
The letter B is like some men. As you can plainly see, because, although it is in debt, it really shouldn't be. —Detroit Free Press.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE.
By virtue of an execution and order of sale, issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Klamath, State of Oregon, dated the 4th day of May, 1909, in a certain action in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Klamath County, wherein Schallock and Daggott Co., a corporation, Plaintiff, on the 23d day of April, 1909, recovered a judgement against F. L. Wright and C. Wright and each of them, for the sum of Ninety-four and 61-100 Dollars with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 23d day of April, 1909, and the further sum of Eighteen and 25-100 Dollars with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 23d day of April, 1909, and the further sum of Ten and 40-100 Dollars, costs and disbursements, and an order for the sale of the hereinafter described real property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to satisfy such judgement, interest and costs.

Notice is hereby given that I will on Saturday, the 26th day of June, 1909, at the hour of 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the front door of the Court House, in Klamath Falls, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash in hand the following described real property, situate in Klamath County, Oregon, to-wit: Beginning on the meander line on the North bank of Klamath River at the Southeast corner of Lot two of Section 29, Township 39, S. R. 7 East of Willamette Meridian, thence North 10.80 chains, thence West 10.80 chains, thence South to the meander line on the North bank of Klamath River, thence Easterly on the meander line of Klamath River to place of beginning, containing 12 acres, more or less, taken and levied upon as the property of F. L. Wright and C. Wright, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgement in favor of Schallock and Daggott Co., a corporation, against F. L. Wright and C. Wright, with interest thereon, together with all costs and disbursements that have or may accrue.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 19th day of May, 1909.
W. B. BARNES,
Sheriff of Klamath County, Oregon.
