

An Opportunity in Furniture

AS I WILL MOVE INTO MY NEW STORE BUILDING ABOUT JULY 15, I HAVE DECIDED TO ALLOW MY PATRONS THE BENEFIT OF WHAT IT WOULD COST TO MOVE ANY OF THE GOODS, AND WILL ALLOW

Ten Per Cent Discount

ON ANY OF THE GOODS IN THE STORE. REMEMBER, MY GOODS ARE ALWAYS SOLD AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE FIGURE, ONLY ALLOWING A REASONABLE PROFIT. RATHER THAN MOVE THE GOODS WE ARE WILLING TO ALLOW THIS TEN PER CENT DISCOUNT ON OUR ALREADY LOW PRICES. THIS IS A CHANCE TO GET GENUINE BARGAINS. CALL AND SEE OUR IMMENSE STOCK BEFORE LEAVING.

enough to reproduce. The vibration of the machine was apparent in all. Several of the pictures, however, came out with sufficient plainness to indicate that a good view might be obtained.

The camera used by Mr. Mars is tied to the frame of the machine. The shutter is operated by a string which the aeronaut must pull as he momentarily gives up control over the ship.

exposition one of the most desirable spots to be found on the coast to visit, and people by the thousands are taking advantage of the opportunity. Special programs and attractions are arranged for each and every day of the fair to suit the visitors in attendance.

BRIEF MENTION.

C. H. Kester is in from Poe valley. G. F. Lindley and wife of Medford are in the city.

N. S. Merrill was a visitor at the county seat to-day.

L. H. Smart of Fort Klamath is in the city on business.

Albert Walker of Bly is in the city on business connected with the County Court.

Ray Merrill, proprietor of the Park stables at Merrill, was in the city to-day.

Whitney Brothers of Merrill have just sold 3,500 sheep, the name of the purchaser not being made public.

D. F. Driscoll, the well-known Bonanza merchant, is in the city as a witness in the case of the State vs. Walker.

Dr. A. A. DePuy, eye, ear, nose and throat. Examination of the eyes, and glasses fitted. Office with Dr. F. M. White. 15

J. R. Horning, a former resident of this city, who moved to Medford, has changed his residence to Vancouver, Wash.

Joe Hettinger came down from Bonanza this morning on his way to San Francisco, where he goes for medical treatment.

Mrs. I. D. Applegate arrived here last evening on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. O. Smith. She will probably remain for the summer.

Harry Nichols came down from Bonanza this morning. He will be one of the witnesses in the Walker case, which is being tried in the court to-day.

The Southern Oregon Chautauqua have just announced the engagement of the famous Innes' Orchestral Band of New York for two performances on July 16th.

J. G. Hurt and J. S. Griffith were down from Odessa to-day. They state that the tourist travel to Odessa is heavier this year than ever before in the history of the resort.

Dr. R. R. Hamilton of Klamath Falls arrived in the city last evening, having in charge Fred Poquette, a former druggist in this city, but of late a resident of Dorris, Cal., who suffered a broken leg while enjoying a drive at the latter place on Tuesday afternoon.—Unquana News.

O. B. Allen, editor of the Merrill Record, came up from that town to-day. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jeannette, who has been visiting with him for the past week. She leaves in the morning for her home in Ashland, and will be accompanied as far as Weed by Mr. Allen.

J. W. Edwards came down from Spring Creek yesterday and reports the trout so plentiful up there that Mr. Spink is seriously considering the advisability of surrounding the camping grounds with a closely-woven wire fence. The fish insist on paying nocturnal visits to the sleeping quarters of the guests.

The "Pacific Indians," the organization of crack marksmen of Medford, has issued invitations to a big shoot to be held in that city September 7th, 8th and 9th. While Klamath Falls has no regularly organized gun club, it will have one in the near future, and it is not unlikely that Medford will see some of the best shots of this section. If such a thing happens, Klamath will have some mighty fine snipes for exhibition.

TRAP-SHOOTING CONTEST.

A trap shooting contest will take place Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the new trap grounds. The grounds are located west of the Altamont road, near the railroad crossing. Free for all. All sportsmen invited.
