Major J. R. Houghton and F. Barnard, two of Chico's prominent and wealthy citizens, are here for the purpose of looking over this section as an available locality in which to make investments.

Don J. Zumwalt left this morning for Los Gatos, Cal., where he was summoned on account of the illness of his father-in-law, who is not expected to live. Mrs. Zumwalt left for the bedside of her father about a week ago.

L. Samuels, general manager of the Oregon Life, who has been busy insuring many of the residents of this city for the past ten days, left for Lakeview Sunday morning, where he will convince the denizens of that burg that there is only one thing for them to do—to insure in a strictly Oregon company and keep the money at home. Mr. Samuels is recognized as being without a peer in his profession on the Pacific Coast, and those who had the pleasure of meeting him during his brief stay here are ready to admit the correctness of this fact.
