WIDE DEMAND EXISTS FOR OREGON APPLES.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 29.—That apple growers of Oregon have nothing to fear from the danger of over-production is the statement of Wilbur K. Newell, president of the State Board of Horticulture, who has recently returned from the East. He says the industry is not likely to be overdone and that the demand for Oregon fruit now exceeds the supply in many quarters. While away he visited many apple-growing districts of the East. He found Oregon apples well established in eastern markets, and said the price paid for fruit from this State exceeds that given for the eastern product.

Portland will have an improved market for the livestock of the Northwest early in the coming month, when the big stockyards on the Peninsula will be opened. It is said the new facilities to be offered for the marketing of stock will be the best on the Pacific Coast. At the start the yards will have a capacity of 75 cars, or nearly 2,000 head of cattle; 10,000 head of sheep, or about 75 cars; and 4,000 head, or 50 cars, of hogs. This capacity can easily be doubled, as occasion requires. The yards will be run in connection with the new packing plants now being built on the Peninsula.

That the climate of the Pacific Northwest is most favorable to long life is the belief of Dr. Rudolph J. Hoague, exponent of the simple life and author of the book, "How to Live One Hundred Years." He is going to establish a colony of his followers near Vancouver, Wash., where life will be along simple lines and next to nature. Simplicity of diet and clothing will prevail. Dr. Hoague's followers will be tucked into bed at sundown and will rise with the lark. Worry and dull care will be tabooed, and members of the colony will be told to be always cheerful and happy. Dr. Hoague promises all who will live after his rules a hundred years of life.

The finding of a coin of the early Christian era in a field near Forest Grove has caused no little speculation as to how it came there. Antiquarian finds in Oregon are not common. The coin has been identified as of the period of Emperor Severus, who ruled Rome from 146 to 211 A. D. The coin is a very rare one, but a few being known in to be in existence.

Oregon fir is becoming a favorite wood for car builders, says A. B. Wastell, secretary of the Oregon and Washington Lumber Manufacturers' association, who has just returned from the East. Not only is it used for sills and heavy timbers in building passenger equipment, but for siding and finishing as well. As a result of Mr. Wastell's visit, the Oregon wood will be more extensively used for this purpose in future.

Action taken by President Taft in setting aside the Josephine county caves as a national reserve meets with the hearty approval of the people of this State, who are interested in preserving its natural wonders. One square mile, including the entrance to the caves, has been made a reservation belonging to the government by proclamation just signed. The caves make up a wonderful collection of roomy caverns and galleries in the side of a mountain in the Grayback range, about thirty miles south of Grants Pass.

Seven-room cottage, three coats best paint; 6 lots, 50x110 ft., making a whole block, the entire block fenced poultry netting; one barn, 14x23, well finished and painted; one woodshed; one hen house; at a bargain if sold soon. Wm. Pitts.

MRS. MARK L. BURNS.

Mrs. Mark L. Burns died at her home in Dorris at 3:15 this morning, death being due to a complication of diseases. Mrs. Burns was formerly a resident of this city, and leaves many friends here to mourn her loss. She is survived by a number of small children, who will miss the guiding hand of an estimable mother. Arrangements for the funeral have not been fully completed.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Napoleonic legend will be revived to-night at the Opera House with a series of colored motion pictures reproducing the greatest events and battles of Napoleon Bonaparte, the Man of Destiny. His marriage by the Pope to Marie Louise of Austria; Jena, Austerlitz, Waterloo, and other stirring battle scenes will live again before the spectators. Parents will do well to bring their children to see these pictures, which will be described by Mr. A. B. Cormack.

"Cure for Rheumatism" is a side-splitting comedy which would make a misanthrope laugh. "Home at Last," a highly dramatic story of a bereaved mother who finds consolation in the love of an adopted daughter, is worth seeing.

There will be new songs and music, and Misses Savage and Marinoff will make their final appearance in vaudeville. The celebrated contortionist and equilibrist, Mr. Bert Natiano, who has been engaged by Mr. Houston for a week, will make his initial bow to our people. He is a master of his art.

OLD MISSOURI STATE ROAD.

One of the oldest landmarks in this part of Missouri is the old Blooming road, also known as the old State road. This road began in the eastern part of North Missouri, running west through Bloomington. It didn't run on section lines as the roads now run, but ran as the crow flies. The highway was the main thoroughfare through North Missouri long before and after the Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad was built, and has a history not well known to the younger generation. Over this old-time highway the early gold seekers traveled in ox wagons with their little earthly belongings, going to California or Oregon.—Brooklyn Gazette.

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC.

Lately the public has been flooded with an inferior brand of Silverware represented as the genuine Rogers. The trade-mark of the Genuine Rogers' knives and forks reads as follows: "1847 Rogers' Bros. Warranted 12 Dwt."

The inferior goods, while bearing the name Rogers with a trade-mark very closely resembling that of the original Rogers, has the following wording: "Not Connected with the Original Rogers."

In buying Silverware do not be misled. Be sure to read the trade-mark. 7-15-21
