A Personal Letter from K. Sugarman

It is customary with us at the end of each season to dispose of all odds and ends left over. Having this object in view, we realize that great reductions must be made to induce the public to accept our offer. Our first reason for making these great reductions is that it is our policy not to accumulate or carry over old stock from one season to another. Second, the capital derived from this sale is invested in new goods for the coming season, thereby gaining two points by giving our customers seasonable merchandise at manufacturers' cost and preparing ourselves for a fresh fall stock, which we are now placing. We trust that our past record for honest business methods will assure us a liberal response to this announcement, and during this sale, I, as sole owner and manager of this house, will strain every effort to assure values as advertised.

Very truly yours,

K. SUGARMAN
