Profits from Good Health

are always in excess of other investments of whatever character, considered from any standpoint.
 In the Saturday Evening Post of July 7th, Mr. Isaac Marcuson, speaking of trust methods of retailers, describes how every applicant for a position as clerk in the institution under discussion must undergo a thorough medical examination. The reason given for this is that every sound man is worth building up in business, while the weak or diseased man is not.
 Insurance companies, railroad companies, and in fact all institutions assuming risk or employing men are rapidly adopting this line of reasoning. One of the most frequent causes of rejection by the U. S. Government and large institutions like railroads

Is Varicose Veins of Men

But I will guarantee under a forfeit of any reasonable amount that after my treatment for this condition, any patient who has previously been rejected on this account will be promptly accepted. This has actually happened in numerous instances, because my method of curing this ailment is known to be permanent and complete. I CURE THIS DISEASE IN ONE WEEK. If you have CATARRH, BLOOD POISON, BLADDER or KIDNEY troubles, SKIN diseases of any nature, consult me, and if I can't do you any good I will tell you so.

Doing Stunts.
 A motorcycle he had bought
 And straightway tried his skill.
 The dealer guaranteed the wheel
 Would climb most any hill.
 He went today to take a spin—
 He's sore as he can be.
 The feller never said the thing
 Would try to climb a tree.
 —Yonkers Statesman.

The Beginner's Troubles.
 "The caddy," said the beginner at golf, telling his troubles, "was so sarcastic and impudent I felt like cracking him over the head."
 "Why didn't you?" asked his friend.
 "Well—er—you see, I wasn't sure which would be the proper club to use for that purpose."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Once Again.
 Oh, you know warm weather's here!
 'Tis a fact you cannot queer.
 'Tis beyond all peradventure or suppose
 That the frost won't come again.
 You feel fairly certain when
 Your glasses get to stippling from your nose.
 —Kansas City Times.

The Likeness.
 "Would you call Senator Smugg a grafter?"
 "No, I should prefer to say that he bears a marked resemblance to a Russian grand duke, except in the matters of uniform and whiskers."—Puck.

Trite and True.
 It takes an age
 To make man a sage.
 The wise ones no longer doubt it.
 The older he grows
 The more he knows,
 And the less he brags about it.
 —Chicago News.

No Postscript.
 He—Why is it the average woman dislikes to send a telegram?
 She—I guess it's because a postscript cannot be added without extra charge.
 —Detroit Free Press.

The Pioneers.
 The straw hat is a fearsome thing.
 Man's timid about daring it
 So very early in the spring.
 But braver for the girls, by Jig,
 Already are a-wearing it!
 —Indianapolis News.

A Comparison.
 "In the case of the donkey anyhow," averred Uncle Allen Sparks, "the voice certainly affords a pretty fair index as to the character of the animal."—Chicago Tribune.

Don't Forget It.
 One chore tends toward a man's heels.
 A new one ousms in sight.
 The pan beneath the teacup soon
 Will be our case each night.
 —Detroit Free Press.
