WORDS OF WISDOM.

A good fame is better than a good face.

A young man idle, an old man needy.

When fools go to market pedlers make money.

A good paymaster never wants workmen.

When a dog is down everyone is ready to bite him.

He who serves well need not be afraid to ask his wages.

He who has four and spends five has no need of a purse.

If you would know what a dollar is worth try to borrow one.

He who buys wants a hundred eyes, and he who sells need have but one.

Gold is an idol worshiped in all climates without a single temple and by all classes without a single hypocrite.

THE LAW OF FINDING

The law of finding is this: The finder has a clear title against the whole world except the owner. The proprietor of a hotel or a shop has no right to demand the property or premises. Such proprietor may make regulations in regard to lost property which will bind their employees, but they cannot bind the public. The law of finding was declared by the king's bench over 100 years ago, in which case the facts were these:

A person found a wallet containing a sum of money on a shop floor. He handed the wallet and contents to the shop keeper to be returned to the owner. After three years, during which time the owner did not call for his property, the finder demanded the wallet and the money from the shop keeper. The latter refused to deliver them up on the ground that they were found on his premises. The former then sued the shop keeper, and it was held as above set forth, that against all the world but the owner the title of the finder is perfect. And the finder has been held to stand in the place of the owner, so that he was permitted to prevail in an action against a person who found an article which the plaintiff had originally found, but subsequently lost. The police have no special rights in regard to articles lost, unless those rights are conferred by statute. Receivers of articles found are trustees for the owner or finder. They have no power in the absence of special statute to keep an article against the finder any more than the finder has to retain an article against the owner.

Hold-Up?

Well, I Guess Not!

Of course, we make a profit on our goods--We are in business for that purpose--but the steady stream of customers coming to our new store in the Mang Block, Sixth St, enables us to turn our money so fast that a very reasonable profit is all we want. Furniture can be sold on close margin, as well as other goods, and that's the way we sell it. When you want anything in the Furniture line come to us, and see what fair treatment we give you.

Robert Williams reports that he has been successful in his well-boring experiment on his ranch about eight miles south of here. After going down sixty-three feet he struck a steady two-inch stream of ice-cold water, which will be piped to his house.
