A Hold-Up?

Well, I Guess Not!

Of course, we make a profit on our goods—but we are in business for that purpose—but the steady stream of customers coming to our new store in the Mang Block, Sixth St, enables us to turn our money so fast that a very reasonable profit is all we want. Furniture can be sold on close margin, as well as other goods, and that's the way we sell it. When you want anything in the Furniture line come to us, and see what fair treatment we give you.

Changes From Day to Day.
Hyker—What kind of a man is Fickler?
Fyker—Haven't seen him for a week, so I can't give you any definite information on the subject.
Hyker—What do you mean?
Fyker—Well, you see, Fickler makes a different kind of fool of himself every day.—Chicago News.

It May Be So.
A lot of people tell me jokes that I have heard.
I listen to the woe of folks that seem absurd.
A chap can't always get away, and people bore me every day.
Perhaps I retail jokes to those who think them stale.
Perhaps some people think my woe a tiresome tale.
I never thought of it before, but maybe I'm a dreadful bore.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Novelty Goss.
"You don't love me any more," sobbed his wife.
"What's the matter now?" queried her husband.
"You don't seem half as anxious to beat the rugs as you were a year ago."—Detroit Free Press.

The Typewriter.
She bought a machine that was new and clean
And that shone with a shine resplendent
She said: "I swear and I do declare
That I will be independent
I'll earn my food, for I'm in the mood,
And my arm is strong and hearty.
Now to the toms for all good men
To come to the aid of their party!"
—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Victim of the "Cops."
"There is no number so unlucky as thirteen," said the superstitious person.
"Yes, there is," answered Mr. Chuggins. "I don't remember it, but it's on the back of my motor car."—Washington Star.

She Put Him Wise.
Upon her hand he pressed his lips.
She said it wasn't right.
But he didn't seem to understand
Her hidden meaning quite.
"I beg your pardon, then," said he.
"It was out of place."
"It surely was," the maid replied.
And then he kissed her face.
—St. Louis Republic.

Like the Ambitious Politicians.
First Parlor Match—You and I are like those ambitious politicians.
Second Parlor Match—Are we?
First Parlor Match—Yes. Just as soon as we get up to where we've got an easy snap we lose our heads.—Judge.

Her Preference.
Said the brunette maid
To another quite fair,
"For firlins" she said
You really don't care,
But let's make a bet
To fight with a fan.
"Fudge!" said the fair one.
"Give me a fool man!"
—Chicago News.

Can You Blame Them?
"Why do parrots swear so?"
"Possibly on account of the conversation they have to endure."
"What do you mean?"
"Everybody asks 'em to have a crack-er."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

These Hats.
Time was when the poets delighted to sing
Of the beauties of Sunbonnet Sue,
But times have now changed, and we hear
On all sides
The horrors of Peach Basket Lun.
—Yonkers Statesman.

False Protections.
Mrs. Hyup—I was so disappointed in Dr. Fullem.
Mrs. Hyer—in what respect?
Mrs. Hyup—I understood he was a great bridge expert, but he was only a dentist.—Puck.

Dressed Up.
While mounted on top of a bbl.
A stump speech was made by O'Pat.
But you couldn't, they say,
Hear him ten feet away,
So loud was his wearing habit.
—Judge's Library.

Nowadays.
The New Cook (after a long series of questions)—Might I ask, ma'am, where you go in the summer?
The Mistress—It hasn't been decided yet, but you might let us know later.

Summer Signs.
Now doth the onion green come forth.
Of summer welcome token.
Thy baffling breath makes wide believe
Her husband's pledge unbroken.
—New York Telegram.

No Place For Him.
"Have you anything around here that a fellow could do to earn a meal?"
"Yes. There are a number of things that"—
"Good mornin'."—Judy.

A Misapprehension.
Oh I sit with both eyes blinking.
And my thoughts are quite sublime—
That is, I seem to think I'm thinking
When I'm merely killing time.
—Houston Post.

Cause For Worry.
"No buttons for coats" is a prophetic fashion item.
Well, we can stand that, but how about the other garments?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Proof.
"Music is the food of love"—
We know it from the strain above.
Where newly wedded couples stay,
The phonograph runs night and day.
—Detroit Tribune.

First and Last.
When a girl begins to call a man by his first name it generally indicates that she has designs on his last.—Lippincott's Magazine.

A Chance For Fame.
A dentist might do something grand
And win a name sublime
If some day he'd get busy and
Extract the tooth of time.
—Chicago News.

ENDORSES STATE OF SISKIYOU

The Crescent City, Del Norte county, Cal., Record endorses the embryo project for an organization of a new State out of portions of Southern Oregon and Northern California. It says:

"Del Norte county and a great portion of Siskiyou would fit well into the State of Siskiyou, while to the north of it lies Curry county, which is dependent on California more than it is on its own State—Oregon."

"For many years efforts have been made to secure government aid to improve the harbors along the coast of Del Norte and Curry counties, but influence has been brought to bear to kill such projects. Work has been done to improve Humboldt bay sixty miles south of this place, and at Coquille river one hundred miles north. In the neglected portions are a number of harbors—open ports—that are all that can be desired during the summer months, but are exposed to southerly storms during winter months. They require breakwaters."

"From the northern line of Curry county, Ore., to the southern line of Del Norte county, and inland many miles—in fact, to the Cascade mountains—is the richest section of the Pacific Coast. There is no one product to depend on as is the case in other localities. We have vast forests of redwood, fir, sugar pine, cedar, etc., mammoth ledges of copper and other minerals; rich fruit, grain, dairy and stock lands; the Klamath, Rogue, Smith, Chetco, Winchuck, Pistol, Sixes and other streams flowing through an undeveloped empire which will furnish unlimited power for all manufacturing plants. One must go over the field to appreciate what awaits the railroad that will surely be built."

YOUR WATCH AS A COMPASS

The points of the compass may be determined with the aid of an ordinary watch. It is simply necessary to bring the watch in a position so that the hour hand is directed toward the sun. The south then lies exactly midway between whatever hour it may happen to be and the numeral XII on the dial. Let us suppose, for instance, that it is 4 o'clock, and that the timepiece is held in the position indicated. The direction of the direction of the numeral II will then be the exact south. If it be 8 o'clock the numeral X will indicate the exact southerly point.

MEN and Women Don't Trifle with your Health

Such matters need the careful attention of a specialist. Most ailments never get well of their own accord. I have devoted my time to the one study.

I pay particular attention to Nervous Debility, Blood Poison, Varicose Veins, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Special Diseases, Urthral Obstructions, Skin Diseases and Female Troubles.

No matter what your experience has been, come in and talk over your case with me. My charges are most reasonable, clearly understood in advance.

You can consult me personally, privately and without cost.
