AT THE PLAYHOUSES
 Vaudeville at Opera House
 One who has listened, enraptured, to the gay Parisienne in more than one cafe chantante, who has watched the dark Spaniard glide through the dreamy mazes of her sensuous dance in Sebastian and Madrid, who became overwhelmed by homesick as he witnessed the performance of an English stock company in Hongkong, has never seen a performance where he paid ten cents admission and saw a child-actress as accomplished as little Miss Wanda, nor received so much in return for what he gave. The Rogell family are a veritable treat, and the people of Klamath Falls appreciate this fact since they pack the opera house every night.
 To-night the program will include the Rosells in their amusing skit, "Dutchie's First Picture." Mr. Arthur Rosell and his clever monologue and several new motion pictures. "Jones and the Lady Book Agent," who stirs up a good of trouble for Jones with his pretty wife, and "A French Duel," in which one club member insults another by putting an olive in his cocktail and is immediately challenged to a duel to the death. The duel turns out as much of a farce as the duel between Viola and Sir Andrew Aguecheek in Shakespeare's comedy "Twelfth Night."
 Bring a photo of your baby with you and enter it in the baby contest at the opera house.

War Stories at the Iris
 "The Moonstone," a story of the Sepoy rebellion in India, having the largest diamond in the world for its centerpiece, is on the screen to-night at the Iris. The amazing sleight-of-hand of the Indian fakir forms an interesting part of the story. The great diamond, kept in the sacred temple at Segeramatan, was stolen by one of the British officers and taken to England, where it was exhibited as one of the trophies of the uprising. The pursuit and recapture of the gem by the Indian prince to whose care it had been entrusted, is a thrilling tale that is witnessed profitably by students as well as everybody else who has the least desire for dramatic productions.
 Another great feature of to-night's bill is "A Wartime Sweetheart," a film in the production of which hundreds of men and horses, necessitating the expenditure of thousands of dollars, participated. It is a heart story of our own civil war, and is well worth the time spent in watching it. In fact, no one loses anything by visiting this thoroughly modern moving picture theater.
 Description cannot describe this sale; to tell of it is like attempting to describe the "munchness" of the moon. Portland Store, next to Postoffice.

Why is our clearance sale like a magnifying glass? Because it makes your quarters appear as large as dollars usually are, Portland Store, next to Postoffice.
 Captain J. J. Rahm has just received his new power launch "Margarita" from the Michigan Steel Boat company. The launch is eighteen feet long, four and a half feet beam, with a six horse-power engine, canopy top, and capable of carrying comfortably fourteen passengers. Her speed is twelve miles per hour. Besides the launch, the captain has twelve row-boats of different sizes which can be secured at reasonable rates by applying at his new boathouse on the Upper lake. The Margarita will be used for the passenger business in the Upper lake and can be chartered at reasonable rates upon application to Captain Rahm.

Notice
THE BIG STORE
 Every now and then some one gets lost and comes into our store and asks where they are at. After they get their bearings we show them through our stock of Furniture and Kitchen Hardware and give them prices that seem to agree with them first-rate. They always promise to come back and see us some time. We don't try to cut any splurge—just plug along, tell the truth, and be satisfied with what we can get. Don't forget the place.
