KLAMATH FALLS, SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1909.

Parker House Rolls.
Materials.—Three tablespoons of butter, one teaspoonful of salt, one-half cupful of lukewarm water, one yeast cake, two cupfuls of new milk, one tablespoonful of sugar, two egg whites and six cupfuls of flour.

Way of Preparing.—Scald the milk and add to it the sugar, salt and butter. Let stand until lukewarm, then add three cupfuls of flour and beat for five minutes. Add the dissolved yeast and let stand until it is a very light, frothy mass, then add the egg whites, beaten to a stiff froth, and the remaining flour. Let rise again until it is twice its original bulk, place on your molding board, knead lightly and then roll into a sheet half an inch thick. Take a large biscuit cutter and cut the dough into rounds. Brush with melted butter, fold over and press the edges together. Place in a buttered pan one inch apart. Let rise until very light and bake in a hot oven fifteen minutes. —National Food Magazine.

A Duck of a Man.
Ellen Terry and Mr. Balfour met for the first time at the table of Henry W. Lacy in London. During the ensuing conversation Miss Terry remained strangely silent. Presently the Unionist leader had to leave for the house of commons, and Ellen Terry at last found her tongue. Her host was relieved to find that she had not been bored. Bringing her closed hand down on the table, she exclaimed with a glance toward the door through which Mr. Balfour had passed, "I think that's a duck of a man!"

The duties of a Weekly Newspaper are varied and various. It carries to the outlying districts and country homes the news of the week, and keeps the country resident in touch with the world at large in a manner that could be covered in no other way. Through its columns our country friends learn of the doings in the neighboring cities and towns, the acts of their county officials, and the deliberations and decisions of the county courts.

In its advertising columns the progressive merchant sets forth his wares, and many a bargain is decided from its columns before the trip to town is made. Many merchants take advantage of its advertising space to set their goods thus before prospective customers, and in doing so make many sales that would otherwise be lost to them.

How welcome a sign in town is when it has been made familiar to the visitor by its constant appearance in "his" Weekly Newspaper no one but that visitor can tell, but from his eager search for familiar names it is easy to determine just what weight his Weekly gives to his judgment when making purchases.

The Republican offers exceptional opportunities to the enterprising merchant in this respect. It goes into every home in the county. Those who have not subscribed for it are borrowing it from their neighbors, and promising to subscribe when they come to town. With a circulation of over 1,000 (1,021, to be exact), it is read by five times that number, and is a welcome guest to every member of every family.

Our mailing list is open to all prospective advertisers, or to any one who is interested in it, and at $2 per year the Republican is the best investment ever made by any person in search of the best.

It is the endeavor of the publishers to make the Republican the leader of all State Weekly Newspapers, and no expense is spared to accomplish this end. It is far ahead of all local competitors now, and will always be so. The facilities are unsurpassed in any office in the State. The most modern machinery and the latest faces of type are used in its production. No expense is spared in any way, and the result is self-evident.

As the country grows with the rapidity that is has in the past few years, and as brilliant prospects forecast for the future, just so fast will the Republican grow. From the little four-page paper of three years ago, it has reached its present generous proportions, and its future is bound to be just as great as the future of this section.

Helping the Town . . .

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one. Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.

A Savings Account . . .

Is a rainy day fund, a life insurance policy, a sick benefit, a funeral benefit, and an old age pension. There is no forfeiture clause in the passbook, and it is under the owner's control at all times. It will tide him over sickness; it will care for his family when he must go; it will see him through old age, and bury him when he dies. It is a simple business proposition. Begin early, and keep it up, and, like manna in the desert, it will supply him as he journeys.
