LEADING A STRENUOUS LIFE

Secretary Ballinger Qualifies for the Rooseveltian Endurance Club.

A North Yakima dispatch of recent date gives the following information:

Secretary Richard Ballinger of the Department of the Interior has given practical assurance that the government irrigation projects now under way will be pushed to completion as soon as possible. He said there was now available to complete reclamation projects $11,000,000, whereas $27,000,000 was needed. He said, however, that he believed congress would make a way for procuring the funds needed to complete the work now in hand. As for undertaking any new projects at present, the secretary said he believed it would be bad business policy.

Secretary Ballinger received yesterday a delegation of head men of the Yakima Indians, who made several requests, one of which—a request for separate pasture—he granted at once. The Indians also asked that all children born on the reservation since 1904 should be given allotments and that a permanent council of Indians be officially recognized by the government in dealing with questions affecting them. These requests were taken under advisement.

Secretary Ballinger is leading the strenuous life this week in a way to win applause from Roosevelt. He rode 80 miles on horseback Sunday and 70 miles to Fort Simcoe and back Monday. Tuesday he went to Wapato and Toppenish, where citizens of those towns presented a petition urging favorable action on the Wapato project. Wednesday he spent in Ellensburg looking into the Kittitas project and today he went to the Tieton project.

EMBEZZLEMENT AT SILVER LAKE

The cause of Attorney Moore's sudden and hurried journey to Silver Lake last week was due to the arrest of C. P. Westcott, confidential clerk of F. M. Crisman, one of the merchants of that place.

The charge laid is for embezzlement of $7,000. Westcott waived examination and was placed under $5,000 bonds for appearance in the October term of court in Lakeview. Failing to secure the bonds, he was given in charge of Deputy Sheriff Arthur, who brought him to Lakeview Tuesday night and placed him in the county jail to await trial.

It appears that Mr. Crisman had implicit confidence in Westcott, and practically placed his entire extensive business, including funds for others, in his hands for safe keeping, and that the result was not altogether satisfactory to the former.

It does not appear as yet what Westcott did with the money. It will probably come out at the trial.—Lakeview Examiner.

FROM COUNTY EXCHANGES

(Merrill Record.)

Henry T. Anderson came in a few days ago from his hunting lodge at Medicine Lake and he brought with him some "bar's" meat, which he divided with his numerous friends. Mr. Anderson and Will Brown, while hunting near the lake, ran across an old bear and two well-grown cubs. They killed the old bear and one cub, running the other up a tree. In trying to capture the treed varmint "tail holts" slipped and bruin disappeared in the brush like a rifle shot, leaving Messrs. Anderson and Brown to hold the sack. L. C. Brand and A. F. Moreland returned from the lake to their home at San Jose via Bartles, Mr. Brand taking with him a fine set of deer horns to adorn his clubhouse.

Six or seven hundred head of the Miller & Lux cattle were driven through town yesterday morning en route to the railroad and the California market.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beard have leased their fine ranch a few miles south of Merrill to William Thompson for one year.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—Mrs. Sarah E. Thompson, the only woman carried on the rolls of the pension office as a soldier of the Union army, died yesterday.
