AT THE HUB

The ennu resulting from being married to an unromantic life partner and the unsuspected latent depths of yearning for the sentimental sloop that soon drops out of married life was shown in "The Lonely Gentleman" last night. A small want ad brought surprising results to two people. Tonight the Iris will put on four thousand feet of films of the best motion pictures ever shown in Klamath county.

TONIGHT AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Those who have not seen the mystic drawings executed by the magic fountain pen should come tonight, for this is undoubtedly one of the most interesting films yet exhibited in Klamath.

Two young gentlemen, unacquainted, speak to the same young lady. They quarrel, and the funniest duel imaginable follows in a laughable series entitled "An Affair of Honor."

"An Assortment of Aeroplanes" is an exceedingly interesting and instructive series of motion pictures in which one gets a close view of the airships devised by Kapterer, Antoinette, Santos-Dumont and Henri Farman as they appear in action. Bleriot is also shown with the monoplane in which he attempted to break the world's record for the highest flight at Bagatelle, France.

"Miss Faust" is a fine series of colored transformation scenes burlesquing Gounod's famous opera, "Faust."

"Alphonse Gets in Wrong," when he is burned alive. Brim full of fun. The babies, new songs and music.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

A civil service examination for forest rangers will be held in Roseburg, Oregon, on October 25th and 26th, 1909. Those desiring to take this examination should apply at once to the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., for an application blank, or for other information to S. C. Bartram, forest supervisor, Roseburg, Oregon.

The examination will be along thoroughly practical lines, and will consist of questions regarding uses of the national forests. All persons between the ages of 21 and 40 will be eligible.

Fall suits and coats, the newest things, now on display at Stille's store.

LECTURE TONIGHT

President Kerr of the Oregon State College at Corvallis will give a popular free lecture tonight on the subject of "The New Education."

No one in the Klamath Basin can afford to miss this treat. President Kerr is an unqualified success as an educator and speaker. He is the State's foremost leader along educational lines. The lecture tonight will be a treat which will long be remembered by those in attendance. The lecture will be given in the audience room of the High School building. No charge for admission.

TO THE FARMERS OF KLAMATH COUNTY

The Klamath Development company proposes to procure and maintain at its office in Klamath Falls a permanent exhibit of such products as are raised here.

We will greatly appreciate it if you will bring or send to us some of your best specimens. We will properly care for same and mark each exhibit with the name of the grower and the part of the county in which it was produced. If the exhibit be fruit, we will properly preserve same in jars.

This is an important matter, and we hope we may have your co-operation. The future development of Klamath county depends upon our united and concerted efforts.

Respectfully,
W. S. WORDEN,
Assistant to President.

A MAN OF LUCK.

The Story of the Test by the Eastern King's Minister.

A king once said to a minister, "Do you believe in luck?" "I do," said the minister. "Can you prove it?" asked the king. "Yes, I can."

So one night he tied up to the ceiling of a room a bag containing peas mixed with diamonds and let in two men, one of whom believed in luck and the other in human effort alone. The one who believed in luck quietly laid himself down on the ground on his blanket; the other after a time found the bag and, feeling in the dark the peas and stones, ate the peas and threw the diamonds to his companion, saying, "There are the stones for your idleness."

The man below received them, in his blanket.

In the morning the king and the minister came and told each man to keep what he had found. The man who believed in trying got the peas which he had eaten; the other got the diamonds.

The minister then said, "Sire, there may, you see, be luck, but it is as rare as peas mixed with diamonds, so let none hope to live by luck."—An Eastern Fable.

Man and Their Feet.

The Frenchman's foot is long, narrow and well proportioned. The Scotchman's foot, according to anthropologists, is high and thick, strong, muscular and capable of hard work. The Russian's foot possesses one peculiarity, the toes being generally "webbed" to the first joint. The Tartar's foot is short and heavy, the foot of a certain type of savage, and the toes are the same length. The Spaniard's foot is generally small, but finely curved. The Englishman's foot is in most cases short and rather fleshy and not, as a rule, as strong proportionally as it should be.—Argonaut.
