We will greatly appreciate it if you will bring or send to us some of your best specimens. We will properly care for same and mark each exhibit with the name of the grower and the part of the county in which it was produced. If the exhibit be fruit, we will properly preserve same in jars. Week's Doings AT THE BIG STORE

There was a man came into our store the other day, nicely dressed and real nice looking, but he had no moss on his think-tank and talked through his nose some. He told us he was from the Summer lake country and was looking for Prices and Bargains. We told him everything we could think of, and he said we was the cheapest outfit he had struck for some time. But as I was going to say, we had a big dray load of heaters come in, and they are put away for the winter; and we had a lot of Rugs and Carpets and other things come in, too. One man got a tolerable good ax for $1 and a bucksaw for 80c. A kid got a Natmg Grater for 5c and a damn coat hook for 15c. One man wanted three pitchforks, but we told him we only kept a few tools to keep house with. A lady wanted a go-cart, "something cute," she said. We had just what she wanted for $15.50. She went up the street with it, almost tickled to death. Another lady wanted a fine Rocking Chair. When we told her the price was $10 she fell in a dead faint. But when she came to she admitted that it was the best chair in town for the money. One man got a tub and washboard for $1.10. A lady bought a fine pair of goose-hair pillows for $6.50 and a waffle iron for a dollar and two bits. After we paid our bills Saturday we counted up and we was in the hole four cents. But we are going to go ahead just the same. Don't forget the place to buy things.
