KLAMATH FALLS, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1909.

THE BOOSTER'S PLEDGE

On my word and honor, I hereby now declare that as long as I am a resident of this community, it will be my constant aim to best all the time and every time, I will do what I can for any public work that has as its object the good of the community. I will submit and abide by majority rule and will not knock and howl my head off if things are not done my way. I will take no radical or extreme position on any question before the people, and will have due respect for the opinions of my friends and neighbors when their opinions are opposed to mine.

I will always try to say something good about my town and my people, or I'll keep my "bano" shut and "cut it out" like a man. I realize that if this town is good enough for me to live in and make my money in, it is the place to spend my money in, especially when I am patronizing legitimate industry or enterprise in my home town.—Exchange.

A Light Dinner

Cornelius V. Collins, criminologist and superintendent of New York's state prisons, narrated at a dinner in Troy some reminiscences of his interesting work.

"A clever criminal of gluttonous proclivities," he said, "once couched a complaint in rather neat terms.

"My inspector, entering this man's cell one day found it very hot and stuffy.

"Why have you got your ventilator closed?" he asked.

"The burly and gluttonous prisoner answered plaintively:

"Well, inspector, you honor, the last time I had the ventilator open a wisp flew in, you see, and carried off my dinner while my back was turned."—Washington Star.

Helping the Town . . .

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one. Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.

The First National Bank of Klamath Falls

Is a good bank to put your money in—safe and reliable.

A Savings Account . . .

In a rainy day fund, a life insurance policy, a stock bond, a general bond, and an old age pension. There is no surer refuge than in the pocket, and it is under the owner's control at all times. It will tide him over sickness; it will care for his family when he must go; it will see him through old age, and keep him when he dies. It is a simple business proposition. Begin early, and keep it up, and, like money in the desert, it will multiply him as he journeys.

Now is the time to open an account with the absence was not due to employment in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on October 18th, 1909, before R. Good Kitchen Company.

One housewife in this town doesn't know anything about the servant problem, at least so much of it as has to do with the keeping of a maid of all work, the quality of such service not being counted. This is because her servants always become devoted to her because of her brightness and magnanimous treatment of them. Having only the one servant of doubtful skill and accomplishments, this housewife has to spend a good deal of time in her own kitchen. The other day Julia expressed her appreciation in this way: "Miss Fanny, yo' ce'tinly is good kitchen comp'ny."—Louisville Times.

Two Hamlets.
Sir Beerholm Tree and Wilson Barrett gave London their production of "Hamlet" almost contemporaneously. A well known wit who was asked his opinion of the dual Hamlets unhesitatingly made answer: "Tree's Hamlet is funny without being vulgar, but Barrett's is vulgar without being funny."

Her Doing.
"His wife made a fool of him."
"What reason have you for saying that?"
"I have his own word for it."
"Get out!"
"I have. He says that all he is to owe to his wife."—Houston Post.
