 Mrs. R. D. Hubbard and family left this morning for Boise, Idaho, to join Mr. Hubbard, who is now stationed there. Mr. Hubbard was formerly with the Reclamation service here, and was transferred to that place.
 Mrs. J. J. Siemens, Holly Siemens and Alfred Castell left for Corvallis Sunday. The boys will again re-enter the Agricultural college and Mrs. Siemens will visit with friends and relatives for the next couple of months.
 There's always trouble this time in the year in getting the children a good shoe; something that isn't too heavy or too light, at the same time looks well after wearing. Parents should insist on getting what they pay for. We've got the shoes and our prices are right. We also carry the best shoe for older people. Klamath Exclusive Shoe Store, Wilson building.
 Mrs. Edith Cox, who for the past two years has delighted the many patrons of the opera house by her excellent piano accompaniment and beautiful singing, a month ago tendered her resignation, which took effect last night. Mrs. Cox has accomplished in a well-nigh incomparable manner a task which would have taxed the ability of the most talented. Mrs. Rose Janet, who will fill the position vacated by Mrs. Cox, is a very finished pianist, and has for a number of years played in different theaters.

Your Size—
 Is the last thing to think about when you buy clothes—that is if you are dealing in an up-to-date shop. Style is the first step to good clothes, then pattern and coloring—the fit is the finishing touch.
 Your size in a style four years old will fit you—see the point?
 Our specialty is dressing men to look their best—it's a study with us—and the success of our establishment. You can't buy the wrong clothes if you come here.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
 Henry and Miles Price have left our school because Mr. Price is going to Yamhill. Miles will go to the Yamhill High School, but because the Yamhill school offers only a two-year course Henry, who is a third year student, will go to the Willamette university.
 Horace Cox was called away last Thursday by a telegram from his father. He will attend the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis.
 The High School now has an enrollment of 111 students, and new members are still enrolling. Miss Nellie Morey from Merrill is the latest addition to the school.
AT THE IRIS
 A complete change of films at the Iris tonight, and by referring to their ad on another page of this paper you can see what a fine assortment they will have. Some of these films have been produced at an extraordinary expense, and besides the pleasure of witnessing the characters in action, it will cause your mind to revert to the ancient history of youthful studies, and thus bring additional pleasure. It is the aim of this house to make their productions not only a pleasure, but instructive as well, and an evening spent at the Iris will be sure to bring beneficial results.
THE BOW TIE GROCERY.
