AT THE OPERA HOUSE

There are two more days yet before the close of the great baby contest. No. 24 is first, No. 3 second and No. 2 third.

An unusually interesting story, "The Mild Message," shows the influence of a little child who all unknowingly thwarts the man who would wreck their home and reunites her father and mother.

"The Bird in the Gilded Cage" is the story of a humble but beautiful girl who, unhappily married to a wealthy lawyer, plans to elope with her old sweetheart.

"The Little Orphan" is a very exceptional film, and the part of the little girl who runs away from home in search of home, whither she has heard all roads lead, is acted with a finish and naturalness really wonderful.

"Midwinter Sports" is a timely and interesting film now, as the year grows old.

Baby Marion will sing the latest song craze, "Tommy" (Illustrated), written in honor of ex-President Roosevelt's late hunting trip in the South.

Is the last thing to think about when you buy clothes—that is if you are dealing in an up-to-date shop. Style is the first step to good clothes, then pattern and coloring—the fit is the finishing touch.

Your size in a style four years old will fit you—see the point?

Our specialty is dressing men to look their best—it's a study with us—and the success of our establishment. You can't buy the wrong clothes if you come here.
