

Bargains Always

Better Bargains This Week Than Usual

It is impossible to enumerate them, but when we tell you that we buy in carload lots direct from the manufacturer you can realize that we are in a position to give you the best bargains in Furniture ever had in Klamath Falls.

No matter what articles you may need to beautify the home and make it more comfortable for the loved ones who share it with you, we can supply your needs, and it won't break you, either. Just drop in and see the many comforts we can sell you at prices you never dreamed of; so reasonable, in fact, that it is cheaper to have them than to be without.

We are always glad to see you, whether you buy or not, for we know you can't help but talk about our bargains in furniture, and when your friends and neighbors hear about it they will come, too. So come in and see us, and let us put you wise as to what modern, up-to-date furniture is.

AT THE IRIS

"A Strange Meeting." This is one of the biograph best pictures, acted by the brown-eyed girl that wins the heart of every one.

"Baby is King." Baby pictures are always well liked, and this one is one of the most attractive of its kind. Baby as monarch of the household—finds willing or unwilling subject in all.

"The Hidden Treasure" is another good film, interesting from start to finish.

"Caught by the Coupon Craze" is a laughable comedy, showing to what end one will go to get something for nothing.

"The Egyptian Mystery," one of those fascinating and wonderful pictures.

Bring your produce to the Portland Store for exhibit. Cash prizes awarded Saturday afternoon, Oct. 9th.
