KLAMATH FALLS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1909.

OPEN UP THE RESERVATION

In congress to hasten action in this behalf.

The opening of the Klamath reservation will do more for the development of the county than any other one thing that has occurred. The reservation has ever been a barrier to the development of the northern part of the county, and the fact that it has so long been permitted to remain as it is a disgrace to the business foresight of this city. Not until attention was called to it by the Herald has anything been done tending toward the rapid closing up of the allotting of the lands and the opening of the reservation, but now that this paper has started the ball rolling every business man in the county should get back of the movement and make the work that much easier.

When you want any article of merchandise buy it of a reputable home dealer, that the profit may remain to enrich the community. Send your money abroad only for what you cannot purchase at home. Home talent, home labor, home industry, home capital and home pleasures are things to be fostered, encouraged and patronized.

FARM CENSUS ECONOMY

Director Durand Hopes to Save Several Thousand Dollars.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—United States Census Director E. Danna Durand hopes to save several thousand dollars in taking the census of agriculture and also to increase the accuracy of the statistics.

The director stated today that at the census of 1900 the agricultural data were handled by means of punched cards. For each farm a large number of cards had to be punched, as the number of facts recorded regarding a farm was far greater than the number of facts regarding an individual in the population census.

Director Durand said the statistics of population and of agriculture are collected by a different force from that employed in gathering the statistics of manufacturers. The population and agricultural data are secured by enumerators, of whom there will be about 65,000 at the present census, they in turn being appointed by the supervisors, of whom there are about 330. The difficulty of securing competent and faithful enumerators is very great. The length of service is very short, fifteen days in the cities and thirty days in the country districts. The period is too short to justify a man who has a good job in quitting it, while on the other hand it is too long in most cases to enable such men to get leave from their regular work to take the census. Moreover, the pay is small, averaging perhaps $3 per day in the country districts and a trifle more in the cities, practically the pay of ordinary mechanics. Not only, therefore, are most of those who seek to be enumerators men who are able to command only moderate pay in their occupation, but many of them are men who cannot command regular employment and who are looking for odd jobs.

Consideration has been given by the census authorities from time to time to the plan pursued in Germany and some other European countries, by which the census is taken chiefly or wholly by men serving without pay, who either volunteer their service from patriotic motives or who are required to act. He doubts whether conditions in this country are ripe for such a scheme. At any rate, nothing of this sort can be done at the present census. It may, however, be hoped that to some slight extent, and possibly to a considerable extent, men can be induced to accept the position of enumerator from interest in the work rather than for the compensation involved. He hopes that a considerable number of the colleges and universities of the country may see fit to give leave of absence to their students for the short time required to do this work of enumeration. The college student is a very useful enumerator in some cases, but it is exceedingly desirable that enumerators should actually live in the districts where they work, and there are multitudes of districts where no college students reside or where such students are in institutions hundreds or thousands of miles from their homes. Another class who can render good service as enumerators are school teachers, but, with the enumeration taking place in April and May instead of June as formerly, few school teachers can be spared from their duties to take the census.

The father who is "chummy" with his boy, gets down to that eager, inquiring, restless little soul and explains and encourages, does not need to cut a birch gad in order to maintain discipline; and the mother who sympathizes, cuddles and plays with her children can keep her slippers on her feet and her hairbrush on her dressing table. Children need love and sympathy as much as flowers need air and sunshine.

It is worth a thousand dollars a year to have the habit of looking on the bright side of things.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
In the County Court of the County of Klamath, State of Oregon.

In the Matter of the Guardianship of Daisy Bessie Slater, a Minor.
Now, on this 5th day of September, 1909, this Court having read and considered the petition heretofore filed and now presented herein by August Buesing, guardian of the person and estate of Daisy Bessie Slater, a minor, praying for an order for the sale of certain real estate belonging to said ward, and it appearing therefrom that said real estate should be sold:

It is hereby ordered—That the next of kin of said ward, or minor, and all persons interested in the said estate, appear before this Court on the 3d day of November, 1909, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the courtroom of this Court, at Klamath Falls, Klamath County, Oregon, then and there to show cause, if any they have, why an order should not be granted for the sale of such real estate, described in said petition, to-wit: An undivided one-eighth interest as heir at law of Thomas Slater, deceased, in and to the Northwest quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section 36, Township 23 south of Range 10 west, Willamette Meridian, in Douglas county, Oregon.

And it is further ordered that service of this order be made by publication thereof for the period of three weeks beginning with the 5th day of October, 1909, in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation, published at Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Dated this 5th day of October, 1909.
J. B. GRIFFITH,
10-5-10-26 County Judge.

LAUNCHING OF THE KLAMATH AT KUREKA, CALIF.

Big Boat to Carry the Name of This County Along the Coast.

The Humboldt Times of Eureka, Calif., of September 30th, says: At twelve minutes before the noon hour yesterday morning the hull of the magnificent new steam schooner Klamath, built for the Charles R. McCormick company at the Bendixsen shipyards on this bay, trembled for an instant in her cradle; then, with a long, graceful sweep she slid into the waters of Humboldt bay. At the same instant the throats of many steam sirens, located at the various mills about the bay, were opened to shriek their noisy welcome to the new bride of the deep.

The Klamath is 210 feet in length over all. She has a beam of 42 feet, and the depth of her hold is 16 feet.

If you are a kicker and see the shadows of failure in everything that is proposed to help the town, for heaven's sake go into some secluded canyon and kick your own shadow on the clay bank and give the men who are working to build up the town a chance. One long-faced, hollow-eyed whining, carping, chronic kicker can do more to keep away business and capital from a town than all the drouths, short crops, cinch bugs, cyclones and blizzards combined.

Helping the Town . . .

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one. Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.

A Savings Account . . .

In a rainy day fund, a life insurance policy, a sick benefit, a funeral benefit, and an old age pension. There is no forfeiture clause in the passbook, and it is under the owner's control at all times. It will tide him over sickness; it will care for his family when he must go; it will see him through old age, and bury him when he dies. It is a simple business proposition. Begin early, and keep it up, and, like manna in the desert, it will supply him as he journeys.
