NEW PICTURES AND BALDWIN ORCHESTRA AT OPERA HOUSE

A wonderfully fantastic transformation series shows a Chinese conjurer and his wonderful tricks.

A delightful dramatic comedy, "The Gamekeeper's Son," tells a story of romance and adventure which ranks among the best.

"An Inspiring Sunset" is a beautiful series of pictures showing the sun setting behind the hills and the little boats plying up and down the river Seine.

A thief employs some rather unusual methods to gain his booty as shown in an amusing farce, "Book-Taught Hypnotism."

There are no obstacles so great, they say, that they can daunt the true lover, and "A Determined Wooer" certainly upholds this statement.

What is perhaps one of the best comedies of Western life is told in a remarkable series entitled "A Bride Won by Bravery."

Regular Friday night social dance will follow the show. The Baldwin orchestra will furnish the music for the entertainment and dance. Pictures will start at 8 sharp.

AT THE IRIS

"They Would Elope." An extremely funny farce comedy, showing how a young couple, misconstruing the attitude of papa, participate in one of the most strenuous elopements to be married, while the folks at home, having read the note left behind, are preparing to give them a royal welcome.

"Jones' Burglar." Our friend, returning late from the club, finds a burglar trying to effect an entrance into his house. Jones helps the burglar in and then holds him up, posing as a hero—saving himself from Mrs. Jones' ire.

"A Georgia Wedding." A film that does not fail to amuse.

"The Artist's Revenge." A drama that is well acted.

"The Kind-Hearted Tough." A good story and shown in a pleasing way.

"The Invisible Thief." A laughable comedy.

"Only a dream." A magic picture and a sure cure; a good comedy.

This is a program well worth seeing. Come and bring your friends.

T. F. Metes and wife are up from Merrill on a shopping expedition.

Up-to-date tailored suits in all the leading shades at Stilts Dry Goods Co.

C. F. Betz of Medford is visiting in the city and seeing how much better Klamath Falls is than the chief city of the Rogue river valley.

SUCCESSFUL DEMONSTRATION

The demonstration of tea and coffee at the Monarch Mercantile company's store yesterday was the most successful of the several of those held by this popular firm. All during the day the ladies of the city visited the store and partook of the delicious beverage and lunch.
