J. W. McCoy and wife of Port Klamath are in the city. Mr. McCoy is so thoroughly convinced that the future of Klamath Falls is exceeding bright that he is contemplating investing in property in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Nelson arrived in this city Sunday from Bonanza on their way to Los Angeles, where they expect to reside permanently, in the hopes that Mrs. Nelson's health will be benefited thereby.

Mr. Sugarman of the Portland Store, is sending to the Chamber of Commerce at Portland some of the fruit and vegetables raised in Klamath county which have been exhibited at his store during the past week.

The others had been members elsewhere. The house was comfortably filled at the evening meeting. Tonight he begins a series of services on church history. All services will be evangelistic and the public is promised a cordial welcome and courteous treatment.

THE BOOSTER'S PLEDGE

On my word and honor, I hereby now declare that as long as I am a resident of this community, it will be my constant aim to boost all the time and every time. I will do what I can for any public work that has as its object the good of the community. I will submit and abide by majority rule and will not knock and howl my head off if things are not done my way. I will take no radical or extreme position on any question before the people, and will have due respect for the opinions of my friends and neighbors when their opinions are opposed to mine.

I will always try to say something good about my town and my people, or I'll keep my "baw-zoo" shut and "cut it out" like a man. I realize that if this town is good enough for me to live in and make my money in, it is the place to spend my money in, especially when I am patronizing legitimate industry or enterprise in my home town.—Exchange.
