

Ladies' Home Journal Patterns now in Stock

Martha Washington Comfort Shoes in low and high cut, just arrived

New line Kid Gloves, most all colors

Select your Toys from the best and largest assortment in town

Don't forget Dorothy and the Auto

HECTOR

Successor to Boston Store

Guaranteed Public Land Script

The C. B. Towers Co., Miles City, Mont., agents for the Northern Pacific Land Script will select for you any most desirable mineral government land. Write them for particulars.

E. C. Greeley

Plumbing, Heating and Tinning
Pumping plants of all descriptions. Gasoline Engines. Heating and Ventilating a specialty. Corvase and Skylight work.
KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON.

M. R. DOTY

Home Making, Moving, General Jobbing
File Driving a Specialty.
Well equipped with Tools, Materials, Etc.
Estimates furnished upon Application.
Postoffice Box 28.

FOR SALE

WILL IMPROVED FARM of 600 acres, 10 miles Southwest of Klamath Falls. Will sell as a whole or in part. Terms, cash down, the balance in deferred payments.

Apply to
E. A. EMMITT
at the Post Office.

BICYCLES

For an up-to-date wheel get a Rambler, on sale at The Gun Store. Tents and Guns for sale or for rent. We carry a full line of Sporting Goods.

THE GUN STORE
J. R. CHAMBERS
Opposite Am. Hotel

Wood

Four-Foot Dry Shab Wood
$3.50 a Cord
MUTCHINS & FAUGHT

HE TOOK THE PRIZE

An Englishman was asked to speak at the Al Fresco Dining Club. He arose, struck his monocle in his eye and told this story:

"I was at Chicago at a dinner, you know," said he, "when they were to give a prize for the best story. One fellow got up and told a story and sat down, another told another story and sat down, don't you know, then they asked me to tell a story. I arose and began:

"I am an Englishman with a sense of humor."

"And to my amazement they gave me the prize before I could say another word. You see what I mean?"

Get your carpets, rugs, curtains, etc., cleaned by Mongold's vacuum cleaner; rates reasonable.

CITY WARRANTS

There is money on hand to redeem the following warrants:

2027	2028	2029	2030	2031	2032
2033	2034	2035	2036	2037	2038
2039	2040	2041	2042	2043	2044
2045	2046	2047	2048	2049	2050
2051	2052	2053	2054	2055	2056
2057	2058	2059	2060	2061	2062
2063	2064	2065	2066	2067	2068
2069	2070	2071	2072	2073	2074
2075	2076	2077	2078	2079	2080
2081	2082	2083	2084	2085	2086
2087	2088	2089	2090	2091	2092

Interest to come from October 21, 1909.
J. W. SIEMENS,
City Treasurer

WANTED—

TIMBER LANDS.
Surveying and Engineering
HARRIS & MILLS
Office in Shepherd Building.

TOPAS is the birth stone for THIS MONTH.

EVERY BABY

BORN in the county during the month of November and brought to our store by its parents will be presented with a SOLID GOLD RING. This is a bonus side offer. Bring on the babies.

WINTERS

WHO IS YOUR CHOICE

(Continued from Page 1.)

scribe through you. The nominating coupon in this issue is good for 1,000 votes; providing it is voted before Saturday, Nov. 27. Only one nominating coupon will be counted for each candidate. If you are in doubt as to any of the points involved, call on, call up or write to Contest Manager, Klamath Falls Herald. He will answer all communications promptly. You will never know how popular you are until you enter this contest. Be one of "The Oregon Booster Girls."

Read these conditions carefully: Any young lady is eligible to enter. Candidates may nominate themselves. Nominating coupon in this issue is good for 1,000 votes if voted on or before Saturday, Nov. 27. Only one nominating coupon will be counted for each contestant. All nominations must be accompanied by correct address of candidate. One winner will be sent from Klamath Falls. Candidates may secure subscriptions anywhere. Reports must be made to Contest Manager once a week. At the close of the contest the votes will be counted by three judges selected by the candidates. The lady who has received the highest number of votes will be declared the winner. The successful candidate must place herself under the guidance and direction of the chaperone and obey her reasonable commands. As the young ladies who make up the party will, by their grace and presence, advertise our city as well as the state of Oregon in no small way, they will be expected to wear such badge or badges as will be suitable for that purpose. Votes will be issued on old and new subscriptions. Votes are not transferable. Read the vote schedule. Contest will close December 24th.

Vote Schedule

	Votes.
Daily Herald, 2 mos., $1.25.....	200
Daily Herald, 6 mos., $3.50.....	600
Daily Herald, 1 yr., $5.00.....	1,000
Daily Herald, 2 yrs., $10.00.....	2,000

Below we give a brief account of what a delightful time may be expected by the fortunate young lady:

About the Trip

A trip to the sunny southland in midwinter. No chilly north wind, no snow, no rain—but only one long day of beautiful sunshine. Tropical verdure on every hand, happy gatherings of care-free people from the northland, wintering among the many delightful winter resorts of California. What girl has not longed to take trip through California in midwinter, visiting the wonderful city of Los Angeles, with its thousands of beauties to delight the eye of the visitor. This trip in the realization is to be had by the winner of The Herald's contest, together with representatives from various newspapers throughout western Oregon.

The party will leave here for a two weeks' tour during the holidays. An experienced guide will accompany the party and point out the places of interest en route. The party will be known as "The Oregon Booster Girls" and will be chaperoned by Mrs. William Fortmiller of Albany. The various commercial clubs included in the itinerary will lavishly entertain the young ladies who will represent their different communities in the south. The places of interest and their attractions, at which the party will stop, are described in detail in the following paragraphs:

To begin with, San Francisco sits at the head of a peninsula, between the ocean and the bay—a city with a climate not to be found elsewhere among the cities of America. Were San Francisco nearer to the bulk of the nation's people, there would not be a convention, reunion or gathering of any fraternal society, association or order that would not time its program for a winter vacation meeting in the city of the Golden Gate. For here is a great metropolis with all that the name implies—theaters, libraries, museums, zoos, parks, shops, government buildings—all the brilliant moving picture of a concentrated population. All these points of interest will be visited by the Booster Girls. A city with everything doing in midwinter because of average December. The city is alive with top-line attractions direct from the great playhouses of New York, and with an even temperature of 55 degrees, the winter tourist finds keen pleasure in his stay in this city.

No wonder the people from less favored places come flocking in during the holiday months. San Francisco allures every member of a family—from the grown folks who prize a city's opportunities down to the "kiddies" who build forts in the warm sands and hear the big seals barking on the nearby rocks or sail boats in the brooks that whisper round the roots of the great redwoods in the canyons of Mt. Tamalpais. The attractions of the nearby towns that make up the Greater San Francisco, with about the same climate, round out the score of this unusual offering. Swimming in salt water, warmed at flood tide by the sand flats that have been exposed to the sun during low tide, boating, golf, auto boulevards, the world-famous Greek theater with its open-air concert, motoring at Mt. Hamilton observatory and to Stanford university—all these delights tied together by fast trolley lines, await the party of Oregon Booster Girls at this queen of the world's cities. The party will spend three days in San Francisco.

The next stop in this delightful tour of the Oregon Booster Girls' tour will be published in a day or two.

UNITED STATES MONEY

There Are Ten Kinds on Uncle Sam's Official List.

ALL ARE NOT LEGAL TENDER.

Some of the Most Impeding of the Paper Currency May Be Lawfully Refused When Offered in Payment of an Obligation of Any Kind.

Officially there are just ten kinds of money in circulation in the United States. Could you name them all off-hand? Do you know which of those besides gold coins are legal tender and in what amount? It may be that "all money looks alike to you," but there's a difference, and below is the list:

Gold coins, standard silver dollars, subsidiary silver, gold certificates, silver certificates, treasury notes (1890), United States notes (greenbacks), national bank notes, silver coins and bronze coins.

Looking upon this formidable classification of United States money as made by the treasury department, it becomes more formidable when it is considered from the highly technical point of view as a legal tender. Some of the most impeding of the paper currency is not a legal tender at all, while, as to the minor coins, they are legal tender in such small amounts as to startle the average layman. It may be well to recall to this layman that the term "legal tender" owes its significance to the fact that in payment of debt or obligation of any kind it can be forced upon the creditor "in full of all demands."

Gold certificates, silver certificates and national bank notes, of which such enormous numbers circulate everywhere, are not legal tender. If you have plenty of money and if you have forced Jones to sue you in order to get judgment, Jones can turn down every one of these bills tendered in payment and force you to dig up something better.

Should Jones do such a thing you might conceive the idea of fixing him by unleashing a whole lot of silver coins upon him. But you want to know what you're doing there, too, for he'll take only $10 worth of silver, quarters and dimes, while of nickels and copper coins only 25 cents value is legal tender.

But as to the standard silver dollar, there's no limit upon your shoveling them out to Jones. This old "dollar of our dad's" still is the real thing in all business transactions unless some clause in a contract has provided otherwise. Jones may refuse the silver certificates, but when you dig up the metal dollar they go unquestioned at their face value. And 1,000 of them weigh 36.58 pounds.

Treasury notes of the act of 1890 are legal tender to their face value in payment of all debts, public and private, unless expressly stipulated in the contract.

Strictly speaking, the United States notes or greenbacks are legal tender, with the exception of duties on imports and interest on the public debt. Practically, however, since the resumption of specie payment in 1879, greenbacks have been received freely and without question by the government, though the law respecting them hasn't been changed.

While the gold and silver certificates are not legal tender as between individuals, both issues are receivable for all government dues of whatever kind, in this respect legally more acceptable than is the greenback.

National bank notes, while not legal tender and not receivable for duties on imports, still may be paid by the government for salaries and all debts of the government except interest dues and in redemption of national currency.

By special enactment no foreign coin of any kind or denomination shall be a legal tender in the United States, so that if some time the street car conductor does balk at the chance Canadian dime he'd find from your pocket keep cool and dig for something that in United States. It's your move.—Chicago Tribune.

Fun For the Boy.

"So you tried to convince your son that he was not too old to be subjected to corporal discipline?"

"That's what I did," answered Farmer Corcoran. "I gave him a good old-fashioned dressing down in the washbasin for the name as if he had been ten years younger."

"What did he do?"

"He just laughed at me," said it reminded him of the good times he had when he was being flogged in his college fraternity."—Washington Star.

Where Courtesy Prevails.

"The South Americans are very polite," said the man who travels.

"Naturally," answered Miss Cayenne. "In some of those republics it is not safe to slight the humblest citizen. There is no telling what moment he may become president."—Washington Star.

Marriage.

"Marriage may be compared to a train car," said a confirmed bachelor.

"Why?" asked his fair partner.

"Because some people are just as anxious to get out of it as others are to enter it."—London Telegraph.

Forenight.

Little Willie—Pa, what is fore-night? Pa—Forenight may mean, in the beauty of being around when there is a moon to be cut.—Chicago News.

UNITED STATES MONEY

There Are Ten Kinds on Uncle Sam's Official List.

ALL ARE NOT LEGAL TENDER.

Some of the Most Impeding of the Paper Currency May Be Lawfully Refused When Offered in Payment of an Obligation of Any Kind.

Officially there are just ten kinds of money in circulation in the United States. Could you name them all off-hand? Do you know which of those besides gold coins are legal tender and in what amount? It may be that "all money looks alike to you," but there's a difference, and below is the list:

Gold coins, standard silver dollars, subsidiary silver, gold certificates, silver certificates, treasury notes (1890), United States notes (greenbacks), national bank notes, silver coins and bronze coins.

Looking upon this formidable classification of United States money as made by the treasury department, it becomes more formidable when it is considered from the highly technical point of view as a legal tender. Some of the most impeding of the paper currency is not a legal tender at all, while, as to the minor coins, they are legal tender in such small amounts as to startle the average layman. It may be well to recall to this layman that the term "legal tender" owes its significance to the fact that in payment of debt or obligation of any kind it can be forced upon the creditor "in full of all demands."

Gold certificates, silver certificates and national bank notes, of which such enormous numbers circulate everywhere, are not legal tender. If you have plenty of money and if you have forced Jones to sue you in order to get judgment, Jones can turn down every one of these bills tendered in payment and force you to dig up something better.

Should Jones do such a thing you might conceive the idea of fixing him by unleashing a whole lot of silver coins upon him. But you want to know what you're doing there, too, for he'll take only $10 worth of silver, quarters and dimes, while of nickels and copper coins only 25 cents value is legal tender.

But as to the standard silver dollar, there's no limit upon your shoveling them out to Jones. This old "dollar of our dad's" still is the real thing in all business transactions unless some clause in a contract has provided otherwise. Jones may refuse the silver certificates, but when you dig up the metal dollar they go unquestioned at their face value. And 1,000 of them weigh 36.58 pounds.

Treasury notes of the act of 1890 are legal tender to their face value in payment of all debts, public and private, unless expressly stipulated in the contract.

Strictly speaking, the United States notes or greenbacks are legal tender, with the exception of duties on imports and interest on the public debt. Practically, however, since the resumption of specie payment in 1879, greenbacks have been received freely and without question by the government, though the law respecting them hasn't been changed.

While the gold and silver certificates are not legal tender as between individuals, both issues are receivable for all government dues of whatever kind, in this respect legally more acceptable than is the greenback.

National bank notes, while not legal tender and not receivable for duties on imports, still may be paid by the government for salaries and all debts of the government except interest dues and in redemption of national currency.

By special enactment no foreign coin of any kind or denomination shall be a legal tender in the United States, so that if some time the street car conductor does balk at the chance Canadian dime he'd find from your pocket keep cool and dig for something that in United States. It's your move.—Chicago Tribune.

Fun For the Boy.

"So you tried to convince your son that he was not too old to be subjected to corporal discipline?"

"That's what I did," answered Farmer Corcoran. "I gave him a good old-fashioned dressing down in the washbasin for the name as if he had been ten years younger."

"What did he do?"

"He just laughed at me," said it reminded him of the good times he had when he was being flogged in his college fraternity."—Washington Star.

Where Courtesy Prevails.

"The South Americans are very polite," said the man who travels.

"Naturally," answered Miss Cayenne. "In some of those republics it is not safe to slight the humblest citizen. There is no telling what moment he may become president."—Washington Star.

Marriage.

"Marriage may be compared to a train car," said a confirmed bachelor.

"Why?" asked his fair partner.

"Because some people are just as anxious to get out of it as others are to enter it."—London Telegraph.

Forenight.

Little Willie—Pa, what is fore-night? Pa—Forenight may mean, in the beauty of being around when there is a moon to be cut.—Chicago News.

Christmas trees are not in our power; virtues are.—Parson.

Finger Prints Never Fail.

Although scars from wounds and ulcers frequently partly destroy the pattern folds, such disfigurements are more often than otherwise aids to identification. When the system of finger prints was first introduced at police headquarters in New York a lieutenant in one of the administrative departments tried to discredit it. He had an experimental print made of the tip of a finger and a short time afterward asked to have the same finger reprinted. He had meantime ground down the skin of this finger on a grindstone until the blood almost flowed. Nevertheless the pattern form was more accurately disclosed in the second printing than in the first. Once the record has been made nothing has yet been discovered to invalidate it.—Charles Brewer in Century.

Revised Upward.

One evening at family prayers the head of the house read that chapter which concludes with, "And the wife see that she reverence her husband." After the exercises had closed and the children had gone to bed, the New York Post says, he quoted it, looking meaningfully at his wife.

"Let us see what the Revised Version says on that subject," said she. "I will follow the new teaching, if you please."

The Revised Version was produced, and her chagrin may be imagined as the head impressively read, "And let the wife see that she fear her husband."

She Meant Professionally.

As the young man caressed the cheek of his ladylove she drew away hastily. "I think," she said indignantly, "you had better see father first."

"Why, what do you mean?" asked the perplexed lover.

"Father," she replied as she turned her cheek, "is a barber."—Success Magazine.

Helped Them Along.

"Have you given proper attention to your children's teeth?" asked the health department circular.

"I've always provided plenty of good food for 'em to chew on," the fond parent inscribed on the bottom of the paper and mailed it back.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Thanksgiving is approaching and you should make a point of calling at the Monarch Mercantile company before making your purchases for the big dinner on that festive occasion. Remember they have everything and anything you may want.

Don't wear out your back, broom and carpets when you can get the work done so quickly, thoroughly and cheaply by Mongold's vacuum cleaner.

Our stock of lumber is now complete. We have everything necessary to build a house including rustic two-lap siding, ceiling, pine and No. 1 vertical grain fir flooring. Will have in a few days slash grain fir finishing lumber and cheaper grade of vertical grain fir flooring.

C. S. & R. E. MOORE.

REDUCED PRICE ON ELECTRIC GLOBES

Owing to a new contract with the factory on lamps, which reduces our cost, we will from and after this date sell globes as follows:

2, 4, 10 and 16 c.p. carbon globes, 20c each.

24 c.p. carbon globes, 30c each.

50 w. Meridian globes, 40c each.

100 w. Meridian globes, 50c each.

20 c.p. Tungsten globes, 60c each.

33 c.p. Tungsten globes, 75c each.

48 c.p. Tungsten globes, $1.10.

KLAMATH FALLS LIGHT AND WATER CO.

GOOD DRY WOOD—Full Measure

Prices—At ranch, $8, $9; Delivered $8 and $9. Down-hill haul all the way.

KLAMATH STEAKS. Phone 591

E. COMPTON, Owner.

You Can't Beat Us on prices for Good Furniture

Why Not Get The Best?

DOLBEER,
THE FURNITURE MAN

China and Glassware

Don't you want some nice Dinner Ware, Fancy Dishes, Plates, Tumblers, Jarrahware, Crockery, Chamber Sets, Water Coolers, Frames—things useful and ornamental for your home and table? We carry such beautiful China as the Harland in plain and gold trimmed. See our extensive display. The largest stock in the city and at such low prices.

GEO. R. HURN HARDWARE DEALER

LAND ON THE LAND IN KLAMATH LAND

Some Choice Homestead Locations in a District that will soon have Transportation.

IT IS YOUR CHANCE

See Captain O. C. Applegate About It

FRANK IRA WHITE

5th Street, near Main, Klamath Falls, Oregon