A REMNANT OF THE DARK

A colored man died without medical attendance, and the coroner went to investigate.

"Did Samuel Williams live here?" he asked the weeping woman who opened the door.

"Yassuh," she replied between sobs.

"I want to see the remains."

"I is do remains," she answered proudly.

Conditions of the Contest

Read these conditions carefully:
Any young lady is eligible to enter. Candidates may nominate themselves. Nominating coupon in this issue is good for 1,000 votes if voted on or before Saturday, Nov. 27. Only one nominating coupon will be counted for each contestant. All nominations must be accompanied by correct address of candidate. One winner will be sent from Klamath Falls. Candidates may secure subscriptions anywhere. Reports must be made to Contest Manager once a week. At the close of the contest the votes will be counted by three judges selected by the candidates. The lady who has received the highest number of votes will be declared the winner. The successful candidate must place herself under the guidance and direction of the chaperone and obey her reasonable commands. As the young ladies who make up the party will, by their grace and presence, advertise our city as well as the state of Oregon in no small way, they will be expected to wear such badge or badges as will be suitable for that purpose. Votes will be issued on old and new subscriptions. Votes are not transferable. Read the vote schedule. Contest will close December 24th.

Address all communications to Contest Manager, Klamath Falls Herald.

New crop best dates and nuts. East End Kandy Kitchen.

The farmers and ranchers throughout Eastern and Southern Oregon are jubilant and already predict record crops for the coming year. Never for several years has the ground been soaked to such a depth at this season, and they know what that means.

If you really enjoy amusing and interesting pictures you should go to the Opera House tonight, as those shown there will be unusually fine. "The Troublesome Lamp Post" creates no end of disturbance and the film is really a classic in its line. "When a Woman Hates" is a stirring drama full of vital interest. "The Yellow Jacket Mine" tells a tale of the early days in the Far West and adds new situations to the old story of the love of a man for a maid. "The Good-Hearted Policeman" is a film which tells a new story true to everyday life.

"Speaking of contests," said an old-timer the other day, "reminds me of a contest at Ennis, Tex., years ago. The laziest man was to get a five-cent bar of soap, and was to be chosen by votes, each vote costing five cents. Well, we picked out a chap we thought ought to get the prize, but he didn't want it; and we had to pay out $42 for votes before we finally made him take the soap."
