KILLED AT THE DEPOT

M. C. MARKEE MEETS A TRAGIC
DEATH YESTERDAY EVENING

DEATH ENDS BRIGHT CAREER

Was a Young Man of Exemplary Habits,
With Brilliant Prospects of Success

The accident which occurred at the depot at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and which caused the death of M. C. Markee two hours later, was one of the most deplorable events that has happened in this community. The plate glass that was to be used in the Jacobs block was being loaded on the dray owned by Shipley & Angove. Being of unusual size and weighing over 1,500 pounds, the men engaged in the work were unable to handle it. They asked some of the office force to aid them in loading it, and in response to their request Messrs. Markee, Sims and Clifford came to their assistance. Mr. Markee was on the ground steadying the case when the team attached to the wagon suddenly started forward. Being directly under the case the deceased did not have time to escape before the heavy box fell on him. It caught him on the chin and crushed his body to an almost shapeless mass. Every available man was pressed into service and the case removed, and a general call was sent out for physicians, to which Drs. Hamilton and White responded. A brief examination was all that was necessary to convince them that there was no hope for his recovery.

Word was sent to Mrs. Markee announcing the fatal injury of her husband, and she remained by his side until he died. Only once did he give signs of consciousness, though he seemed to be in a semi-conscious condition all of the time. He continually complained of being unable to see. Death came at 7:10. Mr. Markee came to this city about two years ago. He at that time entered the employ of the J. M. McIntyre Transportation company, later being employed by the Klamath Lake Navigation company when that company assumed charge of the freight and transportation business between the railway terminus and this city. In each of these positions he showed remarkable ability, and was a particular favorite with the public, with whom he was continually in contact. When he entered the employ of the Southern Pacific he was well equipped for the duties he assumed, and was held in high esteem by his superiors and the public.

The deceased was a native of Oregon, having been born in this state December 14, 1884. On July 24, 1909, he was married in this city to Miss Sadie Wagner, and their brief married life was marked by devotion and solicitude. He was a young man of exemplary habits, and had a host of friends among all classes. His character and habits were such as to attract the attention of the head of one of the largest institutions of the county, who had planned on placing him, in the near future, in a position of trust and importance. It is doubtful if even Mr. Markee knew of the good fortune in store for him, though the date was not far distant when he was to assume duties that would eventually make him an important factor in the affairs of the city.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Whitlock undertaking establishment. The remains will be sent Monday morning to Forest Grove for interment.

He is survived by his wife, who has the sincere sympathy of the community, his mother and other relatives, residents of Forest Grove. The deceased carried an insurance policy for $2,500 in one of the leading insurance companies.

AN ARTLESS DISTINCTION

Lewis, aged 3, asked his mother what he was made of. The mother replied, "Sugar, because you are so sweet." Soon after she heard him declare to his little colored companion, "I am made of white sugar and you are made of brown sugar."—Delineator.

A VOICE FROM THE BUENA VISTA HEIGHTS

To all whom it may concern, and to the town council in particular.

You have advertised an election on December 31st in behalf of the voters of the additions in question. I wish to ask a few questions. Is this to be a case of taxation without representation? Before this municipal pumpkin is pulled from the vine, and before we vote we want to know if we are to have the rights and privileges of the rest of the town enjoy. Are we to vote "yes," and then lay the water pipes and mains out of our own pockets? Are we to vote "yes," and then pay the regular price for our lights in addition to paying for both the poles and wires for came out of our own pockets? Four hundred and twenty-five dollars to light one building one year 500 yards off the main line in the Buena Vista addition would make anyone swear. Are we to vote ourselves in and then have all the old bobtailed one-horned cows in the land herded round us by the bolisterous young Americans of the town? If so, nothing doing. If so, we will continue to drink slough water, burn sage brush for light, fence against the moon-eyed broncho, the hogs and discharged mules of the city.

This question has been brought up before, but the answers were too vague. Be more explicit, please. We believe in expansion, but a bursted boiler is worse than no steam. Extension of municipal lines is good so long as they don't rasp people on the bass string.

COMMODORE.

OFFICERS ELECTED

At the regular meeting of the Degree of Honor Thursday evening the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Mrs. Mina Shive, C. of H.; Miss Faye Hogue, L. of H.; Mrs. Lizette Ramsby, C. of C.; Mrs. Mary R. Hogue, recorder; C. C. Hogue, financial; Geo. R. Hurn, receiver; Miss Rosa Shive, usher; Mrs. Belle Smith, inner watch; Mrs. H. F. Melbasse, outer watch.

At the close of the session dainty refreshments were served.

One of the large Pennsylvania anthracite mining companies has engaged in the manufacture of coal dust briquettes on a large scale, finding them an economical fuel.

The valiant Nimrods of this vicinity have turned their attention from the wary mallard, and now bring into town cottontails and jack rabbits as the result of their outing in the hills.

Even John Milton, of Classic memory, staid and sedate though he was, knew of the joys of dancing, and in his beautiful "L'Allegro" calls on the charming daughter of laughter to "Come and trip it as you go with the light fantastic toe." Everyone will enjoy as they never have enjoyed a like affair, the masquerade ball to be given at the Opera House on New Year's eve.

UPPER LAKE NOTES

"Knew Rology." I don't know if that is the way to spell the thing or not, but that is what is keeping us in out of the wet just now.

If there is a bounty on jack rabbit scalps some of the boys will do well in the foot hills and sage brush up here.

Broken windows in almost every vacant house looks bad for the rising generation, and some one in authority ought to look after the young culprits.

Capt. Wickstrom is having trouble in obtaining lumber for his new boat; otherwise he would have had the work well under way.

Klamath lake at present writing is hermetically sealed. Ice too thick for even Capt. Parker and the Muzuma. Navigation is practically held up.

On account of frozen and busted piping the Long Lake mill is not running. The box factory has also suspended operations for a week or so.

The busiest man on the water front today is the man with a gun, and many ducks are being put out of business.

Commendable progress is being made by the graders at the Southern Pacific railroad front. Weather conditions don't seem to affect a modern steam shovel.

Mr. Withrow has placed his launch Cruiser in winter quarters in the Buena Vista boat house.

Peter Hamilton of Buck Island is building a boat house for his launch Madame.

Several of the Upper lake launches have been placed in winter quarters at Bear Island.

D. M. Griffith has five or six carpenters at work on his big hotel at Eagle Point. He wants to get the building in commission early in the spring.

We are in possession of the plans of a new yacht to be built here in the spring. She will be 50 feet over all, 15 feet beam, and supposed to carry 250 yards of canvas, with possibly an auxiliary gas engine. She will be fitted up in elaborate style and used for summer cruising.

Many at Shippington are indulging in skating, while the Shippington sled, hillside and small boy are one and indivisible. Lots of fun in Oregon.

The members of the city council were engaged this afternoon in going over the grade maps of the city with City Engineer Zumwalt, preparatory to reaching a definite decision as to the location of the main sewer. The original action placing the sewer on Main street may be rescinded, and Klamath avenue selected.

Toys in the children's minds mean Christmas and holidays. They view with speechless wonder and amazement those dolls and soldiers, babies' chairs and playhouses, mechanical trains and gorgeous uniforms now displayed in the windows of the Bon ton, Portland and K. K. K. stores.

PROGRESSIVE SUPPER A BIG SUCCESS

The bazaar and progressive supper given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church was a decided success. Such articles as were prepared for sale in the bazaar were quickly purchased and ten times more would have been as easily disposed of. The feature of the affair was the progressive supper, served in the big store room in the White-Maddox block. Even standing room was at a premium all evening, it seeming as if everyone in the city was desirous of partaking of the tempting dishes served. The ladies feel particularly gratified over the hearty support given.

BUYS SHEEP

John M. Flynn of Lakeview is in the city today for the purpose of closing up a deal with Tom Garret of Bly, from whom he has just purchased 1,000 head of sheep. Mr. Flynn is getting to be one of the big sheep men of Lake county. This is his first visit to Klamath Falls, and he was greatly surprised at the size of the city. While he expected to find a lively, wide-awake place, he was not prepared to run up against a metropolis in miniature. He will remain here a few days, shaking hands with old friends and making new ones. Mr. Garret expects to return to Bly in the morning.

SEVENTH GRADE ENTERTAINS

The Seventh grade of the public school entertained their parents and friends last evening in the assembly hall of the school. A literary program was followed by refreshments and various forms of amusement. A most delightful time was had, and the pleasure of the evening was added to very materially by the splendid music furnished by the High School orchestra, for which the management of the school is very grateful.

There will be several new pictures at the Opera House. "Caucasian Costumes" is an interesting series of travel pictures through Southern Russia. "The Careless Tramp" is a thoroughly delightful comedy where the restless traveler meets several amusing adventures. Baby Marion will sing and dance tonight in her usually delightful manner. After the show there will be a dance, and the Baldwin orchestra will play several concert selections between the pictures.

Monday evening Castle & Montgomery will open a week's vaudeville engagement at the Opera House, giving a sketch, change every night, which will include singing, joking and Spanish dancing, an art in which Miss Montgomery is an adept. They are playing the Pantages circuit, and have two weeks' lay-off in their jump from Seattle to San Francisco.

Burrell Short is in the city from his ranch.

The Rev. Vallandigham returned Friday evening from Portland.

LAST DAY OF SPECIAL OFFER

CANDIDATES WORKING HARD TO SECURE VOTES

LESS THAN 2 WEEKS REMAIN

And No Opportunity to Add to Their Strength is Being Overlooked by Contestants

The big special vote offer comes to a close tonight. The young ladies are reporting the greatest possible success, and the vote next Monday will show a large increase for all of them. Subscription to apply on this offer must be received at this office before 6 p. m.

The contest will close in less than two weeks, and the young candidates are working with a vim that is going to make it interesting. Some of the contestants are only a few votes behind, and a little extra work will put them in the lead. It behooves all to work hard until the close of the contest. The trip is well worth putting in some hard work for. Two weeks of sightseeing and pleasure at absolutely no cost to the winner. Every courtesy will be extended the young ladies while away. An efficient guide will be furnished whose duty will be to show and explain all points of interest en route.

If you are a few thousand votes behind now don't be discouraged. Work hard for the long time subscriptions. It will only take a few of those to place you in the lead. You will find that your friends will rally to your aid now that the contest is about to close. See them if they haven't helped you already, and get them to subscribe now.

Following is the standing of the candidates up to last night. Many votes have been cast since then which would alter the standing of the contestants had they been included in this week's count:

Flora Maston	29,500
Helen Harris	26,500
Golda Barnes	19,000

VOTE SCHEDULE
