CITY NEWS.

December records now on sale at Winter's.

A decision was rendered in favor of the school district of Merrill. Phonographs on easy terms at Muller's, corner Sixth and Main streets.

Ducks and dressed poultry any day at the Monarch Mercantile company.

You will find the most complete line of the latest in phonographs and records at Muller's, cor. 6th and Main.

Why not give a nice box of stationery? A useful and sensible gift, 25c to $4. Star Drug Co.

You can buy Edison phonographs as cheap and on as good terms of E. W. Muller, Klamath Falls, as you can in Chicago, or any other large city.

Rev. J. J. Cunningham, pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, who has been in San Francisco for the past two weeks, will arrive home this evening.

The jury in the case of the state vs. O. T. Anderson, who was tried this week on the charge of subornation of perjury, returned a verdict of not guilty last evening.

Will open up a first-class lunch counter Monday, December 13th, corner of Seventh and Main streets. East End Lunch Counter.

C. W. HARLOW.

The special edition of the Morning Express, prepared and issued under the direction of M. L. Burton, was issued this morning, and is a credit to the paper, Mr. Burton and the city.

Those who trade with the Monarch Mercantile company have a chance of winning two prizes, both worth $20, if they can guess how long it will take the mammoth candle on exhibition there to burn.

A sewing machine or phonograph makes a useful as well as desirable Xmas present. You are cordially invited to examine my most complete stock. E. W. Muller, corner Sixth and Main streets.

F. J. Bowne, who came down from Bonanza yesterday to join his wife, who has been here for the past couple of weeks, is busy trying to find a house, expecting to remain in the city for the next couple of months.

The case of William Wagner vs. the school district of Merrill was on trial this afternoon in the circuit court. The sum involved is $30. Irwin & Harris represent Wagner and R. C. Smith the school district. The case went to the jury at 3:30.

C. W. Harlow is selling out his stock of paints and varnishes, and will start in the commission business, selling apples, etc. He intends to install a lunch counter and sell cold lunches and such dishes as are easily prepared.
