STARTLING SHOE SALE

At 9 o'clock Saturday morning we start the most startling sale ever held in Klamath county. The first of the year we begin to manufacture shoes of our own make; therefore we will have to have store room. We have marked our present stock way below cost. There are shoes for men, women, boys and girls; high shoes, low shoes; heavy working shoes, and all kinds of shoes, rubbers, and everything carried in a shoe store. All sizes and values.

Some are reduced only 10 per cent, and some are marked to a quarter of the old prices.

Every pair is a bargain. You can buy two pairs to advantage.

First-comers get the greatest snaps. Klamath's Exclusive Shoe Store, J. Ritter proprietor. Next door to postoffice.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Castle and Montgomery continue to draw good houses. They will appear tonight again in the dramatic sketch, "Sowing and Reaping." The pictures tonight will be "Marble Heart," dramatic; "Electric Transformations," colored; "Two Lovers and the Coquette," "The Unexpected Guest," and new songs.

ARE YOU PAYING RENT? $109 down and $10 per month will buy you a new cozy two-room cottage, furnished complete if you wish, large closet and pantry, electric lights, city water, sidewalk, lot 50x130. In "Hot Springs Addition." Three and four room houses on equally attractive terms. See the owner, Nelson Rousevell, at Gillette Flats, evenings, or at the houses every day.

Rich Ones
Mr. S.—See that young farmer, Maggie? He made a fortune cultivating weeds.

Mrs. S.—Surely not. What kind of weeds were they?

Mr. S.—Widow's.—Exchange.
