EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTION AT HOUTON'S OPERA HOUSE

Beginning Monday, December 27th, Manager J. V. Houston is bringing in the well-known romantic actor, James Keene. This is the big vaudeville event of the season, Mr. Keene being one of the top-liners on the big Orpheum circuit.

The opportunity to secure this attraction came through our local manager being wide awake and keeping in close touch with affairs theatrical in the city centers. An article in one of the dramatic papers attracted Manager Houston's attention. The article stated that the well-known star was on his way south to spend New Years in his native city, San Francisco. This meant an open week in Mr. Keene's bookings, and Mr. Houston got busy with the wires.

The opening playlet will be "Hail for Hanson," a beautiful scenic production, and said to be extremely funny. During the week "The Prince of Liars" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will also be presented.

Mr. Keene last visited the coast as a star feature in Leiber & Co.'s big New York production of "In the Bishop's Carriage." The company appeared, of course, in the large cities only, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco being the only stops made on the coast. This is Mr. Keene's first visit to Klamath Falls.

No Happy Medium

"What's worrying you?" "Motor car," answered Mr. Chugina. "It either goes so fast that I'm held up by speeding or so slow that I'm warned not to obstruct traffic."—Washington Star.

Her Distress

Mary, aged fourteen, was found one day by an older sister sobbing and crying.

"What is the matter?" she asked, with great concern.

"Three boys have asked me to go to the dance tonight," was the unexpected reply.

"Well, my dear child, certainly that is not such a terrible misfortune."

"Yes, but I told the first one I would go with him, and the last one was a long pants."

He Heard of It

Admiral Walker was a fine old sailor, and he was recognized as thorough. No personal friendship softened his manners to a delinquent. One day when he was sailing out from Hampton Roads with the international fleet that helped us to celebrate the centennial of Washington's first inauguration his orders about weighing anchor were disobeyed by his dearest friend in the service, who was in command of one of the ships, and as the old Chicago, the flagship, passed the trembling culprit the waves of the world heard "his whippers" thundering out from the bridge objections and expressing wonder at his own moderation in not putting his old comrade under arrest. At another time when the white squadron was sailing out of a Mediterranean bay another old friend worked his ship as awkwardly that the admiral—then nearly a "wonder dollar admiral"—suspended him by signal in the face of the whole fleet. The punished captain, coming aboard to protest against his public reprimand, puffed out indignantly, "Why, sir, I never heard of such a thing."

"Well," said John, pulling at his big side whiskers, "you've heard of it now."—Harper's.

Explained

What He Wanted

"What I want," said the client to the attorney, "is a verdict in my favor."—Life.

Helping the Town . . .

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one. Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.
