OLD TIME CHRISTMAS

Light for the Christmas of long ago, When to chapel I trudged, knee-deep in the snow,
Black, early of morn, dark, dreary and cold,
Yet happy, because we were all of God's fold.
With one single thought all the folk were about,
And friend greeted friend with a merry Christmas shout.
All the world seemed so humble; no "class" churches then,
The rich and poor mingled in prayer,
And the kissing and hugging just at the church door,
The parson comingling with fatterers galore.
Then we dispersed to our home fire sides,
So cheerfully burning where kinsfolk abide.
When relations—so many—reunited once more, Affection's fond triumph returned to our door Uncles, aunts, cousins, neices the many,
But most loved of all were grandpa and "grannie."
What a commotion, as we thronged round the fire With singing and laughing, of which we'd never tire.
What harm if the punch added zest to the meeting,
And untold fond friendship's social greeting.
Those days we knew when we'd enough,
Were not made mad by chemical stuff.
And the little ones, too, so happy with toys,
Drama, trumpets and rackets—entire noise.
Wagon box sleighing, squatting deep in the straw,
Like birds in their nests, with swift horses to draw.
What capital fun to capsize in the snow,
My part of the program, as all old folks well know.

And the love songs we sung, long long ago,
Were relieved by the snowballs at each other we'd throw.
But for all "grannie's" vigilance matches were made To augment the reunion another decade.
Toboggan and skating—what fun on the ice,
So free from vulgarity, blasphemy, vice.
Those thoughts throng my memory each Christmas time, So hence my great pleasure to give them in rhyme.
J. W. FANNING,
Klamath Falls, Ore., Dec. 19, 1909.

Her Distress.
Mary, aged fourteen, was found one day by an older sister sobbing and crying.
"What is the matter?" she asked,
with great concern.
"Three boys have asked me to go to the dance tonight," was the unexpected reply.
"Well, my dear child, certainly that is not such a terrible misfortune."
"Yes, but I told the first one I would go with him, and the last one was a long pastor."

Harriman and the Public.
Harriman seems to have unlearned the lesson which W. H. Vanderbilt taught railroaders—that the public should be treated with profane contempt. Reports of investigations of railroad accidents on his lines are to be made public, and outsiders will be admitted to the sessions of the board making inquiries.
From a business point of view this new departure of Harriman's is wise.
Heretofore it has been assumed, with out stopping to inquire, that the majority of accidents are due to faulty equipment, for which the railroad management is responsible. Rigid inquiry should disclose the truth, and it has been urged in favor of the plan of publicity that it is certain to transpire that individual carelessness plays an important part in piling up railroad casualties. In possession of the truth, the public will lay the blame where it belongs, whether the culprit be man or monster.

Helping the Town ...

By banking your money in a bank in your own community you increase the community's power to do business. If substantial farmers want to borrow money there is more to loan them. If you bank your money away from home it is loaned to other farmers, merchants and manufacturers. Help your home people. Money hidden at home helps no one.
Placed in a bank it is put to work in ways that help all.

The First National Bank of Klamath Falls

Is a good bank to put your money in—safe and reliable.

An Added Joy to Xmas

protection which adds additional joy to the comfort and pleasure of the season.
