ALREADY GATHERING AT LOS ANGELES (Continued From Page One.)

ary, when the skies are always blue, and the hills and fields are green; when the flowers are in full blossom, and the balmy air is laden with the perfume of orange blossoms, and filled with the glad songs of the birds. No better time nor place could have been chosen for this great event and so it is safe to say that the railway men who already are predicting that 200,000 visitors will be attracted to the "Italy of America" in January to witness the airships in flight will not be far amiss, and if anything too small.

Already many of the aviators and aeronauts who are to make flights during the meeting are on the ground with their airships, and those who are coming from Europe have left there and will arrive in Los Angeles during the next few days. No accurate estimate of the number of the various kinds of aircraft that will be seen in Los Angeles can be made at this time, but already the list of those under contract is upwards of fifty.

NO BETTER ANYWHERE

J. W. McCoy returned Friday evening from a trip to Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, where he went for a brief visit with friends and relatives. Mr. McCoy is glad to get back home, and in speaking of his trip said:

"I am more convinced than ever that if the people of Klamath County could see what they have to offer on the outside they would be glad to remain here and continue to live happy ever afterwards. The glamour of the other place has worn off, so far as I am concerned. While there are many fine sections in the territory I visited, it must be admitted that there are none so possessed of the advantages to be found in Klamath County. This section has the resources and it has the future, two factors not to be found existant elsewhere. Everywhere I have gone the people are inquiring about the Pacific Coast and the large number of these who have had Klamath County in mind amazed me.

"I doubt if ever there has been such an epidemic of Western fever, and the next few years will see a wonderful increase in the population of the entire Pacific Coast. That Klamath County is to benefit directly from it is proven by the number of people who told me they expected to visit this section in the near future."

AN OLD-FASHIONED CHRISTMAS

Mrs. E. B. Hall, ably assisted by Mr. Hall, entertained about fifty friends on Christmas night at the Baldwin. The entertainment was in the nature of an old-fashioned Christmas celebration. There was dancing and at intervals between refreshments were served. The refreshments consisted of apples, nuts, popcorn and candies. Mrs. Hall has an enviable reputation as an entertainer and an ability to make every one feel like being congenial. During the evening Mrs. Margaret Briggs, the popular violinist of the Baldwin Orchestra, was presented with a handsome leather violin case by friends stopping at the Baldwin.

KILLED AT MERRILL

Bill Essix, a full-blooded Modoc Indian, was thrown from his wagon Christmas night about four miles south of Merrill, and killed. Essix had been to Merrill during the day and is said to have been under the influence of liquor.

Essix lived at Yainax, on the reservation, but was working on a contract grubbing sage brush below Merrill. He was accompanied by his nephew, Jim Brown, when the accident occurred. It is said that the horses became scared at a pile of rocks near the road and ran away.
