Be Just Simply Asked
An orator with long whiskers was eloquently making a free silver speech. "Gents," said he, "our country's welfare demands that silver be kept at its face value. If the government marks a dollar a dollar is follows that it must be worth 100 cents." "Excuse me—may I ask a simple question?" spoke up a man in the rear of the hall.
"Certainly, sir," said the orator.
"Then," said the man, coming forward, "if the government marked your whiskers 'hay' would a mule eat them?"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Rockefeller's Best Story
Rockefeller's favorite story is about two Irishmen, who were discussing him and his wealth. Rockefeller tells it as follows:
"Do you know," said Pat to his friend, "that this Rockefeller is the richest man in the world?"
"Yes don't say," answered Mike.
"Yes, he is; an' ivvy toime that clock ticks off a minute he is $1,000 richer."
"Be jabbers," replied Mike, "git me an ax an' I'll smash the clock."

Father Knows
She—Did you say anything to papa about your being too young?
He—Yes; but he said when I once began to pay your bills I should age rapidly enough.—Pittsburg Gazette.

The watch of modern times. Ever good; better now. I have it; the new 21-jewels, 14 size. The price is $75. I'd be pleased to show it's merits.

Dr. Wm. L. Martin will leave for Oakland tomorrow, but he expects to return before long, as his father, Alex Martin Sr., is so much better that he does not believe that his presence will be needed at the Bay city very long. Deputy United States Marshal Griffith went to Dalry this morning to serve summons on J. G. Wright for running cattle on the reservation. It seems that Wright had been grazing cattle on land in the boundaries of the reservation, and that when he was called upon to pay the grazing charges he refused to do so. The amount involved is only about $75, but before the affair is settled it will probably cost Mr. Wright much more than that.
