AWARDED MEDAL FOR RESCUING A MAN

WASHINGTON, July 18.—A medal has been awarded to Guy W. Breck, a navy quartermaster, for rescuing a drowning man in San Francisco bay on August 2, 1909.

NO WITNESSES ARE EXAMINED BY GOVERNMENT

CHICAGO, July 18.—There were no witnesses examined by the government in its suit against the packers. The hearing has been adjourned until Monday.

Nothing to Lose

They were impecunious "peony-aligners," and they lived together, partly because they didn't mind each other much, but principally because they were about the same size and one best suit of clothes did for both. In the silent watches of the night one of them awoke to hear a suspicious creaking in the room. It was a bungling burglar, who had mistaken their room for an adjoining suite, occupied by a wealthy fishmonger.
 "George," he shrieked, "there's a burglar in the room."
 "You blundering idiot!" roared his bedmate. "Why the dickens couldn't you keep quiet. He might have dropped something."—Answers.

HILL MAY TALK AT PORTLAND

RAILROAD MAGNATE INVITED TO MAKE AN ADDRESS

Forestry Association is Making an Effort to Prevent Losses From Flames

PORTLAND, July 18.—Portland's Autumn Livestock show and race meet on the Country Club grounds will be known as the Harvest Festival and the biggest purse ever offered in the Pacific Northwest for a single race will be hung up. It will be $10,000, and will be known as the bankers' purse. Another, offered by the hotel men, will be $5,000. Many smaller prizes will be offered, and it is believed the festival will attract a larger gathering than any similar meet held in this part of the country.
 James J. Hill will probably be the biggest attraction of the festival. A strong telegram of invitation has been sent him, which it is believed he will accept. It is planned to put the great empire builder on the program for an address.
 Dates of the festival are September 5-10. The amusement end of the festival will be far more prominent than ever before. The attractions will be selected with a view to meeting the varied tastes of the multitude in attendance, and it is promised there will be a good time for all.
 The Western Forestry and Conservation Association, which embraces the states of Oregon, California, Washington, Montana and Idaho, is carrying on a campaign to save the forests from the usual fire losses that occur each summer. This organization represents thirteen minor associations. Printed matter, fire warnings and circulars, are being sent out to timber owners, millmen, farmers and others directly concerned. In its literature the association states that half the merchantable timber in the United States is contained in the five states in the association, and that their production of lumber is one-fifth of the total in the country.
 What is said to be the biggest event in the history of Coos county will be the carnival to be held by Marshfield and North Bend in the week beginning August 15. A clam bake, the largest ever held on the coast, is one of the features. There will be many amusements for the people and big illuminations of the Coos bay cities and harbors. The arrangements now being made are on a larger scale than was ever attempted in the Coos Bay country.

Proud of His Income

Apropos of Hall Caine's recent lawsuit a New York playwright said:
 "Hall Caine is always talking about his health, his ruined nerves, insomnia, and so forth. He is as proud of his invalidism as Shadlow is of his muscles."
 "The last time I saw Hall Caine was in his bedroom in the Hotel Walton in Philadelphia. The little thin man with his domelike forehead and weak, wispy brown whiskers, looked more like Shakespeare than ever."
 "Mr. Hall Caine," I said, "I hope you are well."
 "Well?" he snarled. "I'm far from well. I haven't slept for two weeks."
 "Then," said I, "you are ever so much better, for the last time I saw you you hadn't slept for a month."
 —Louisville Times.

Dangerous Fish

K. M. Wharry was telling some friends about a proposed fishing trip to a lake in Colorado he had in contemplation.
 "Are they any trout out there?" asked one friend.
 "Thousands of 'em," replied Mr. Wharry.
 "Will they bite easily?" asked another friend.
 "Will they?" said Wharry. "Why, they're absolutely vicious. A man has to hide behind a tree to bait his hook."—Denver Post.
