The New Housekeeper

Mother and the baby had gone away visiting for two whole days.
Eight-year-old Marjorie was keeping house for her father.

"What shall I order, Marjorie?" he asked very gravely. Marjorie's eyes shone as only Marjorie's eyes can shine.

"Candy!" she cried; and her father wrote it down. "But that is not enough for us to live on," he remonstrated gently. "What else?"

Marjorie caught her breath. Oh, the delight of being able to order meals like a grown person! "Cookies!" cried Marjorie. "And bananas!
And plums! And more candy! Oh, what fun it is to keep house!"—The Delineator.

The Winema, the Klamath, the Curlew and the E. P. launch were all loaded with excursionists to Rocky Point yesterday.

REV. M. M. BLEDSOE PREACHES AT ST. CLOUD

Masama Brings Down Twenty-Five Tons of Hay From Wood River.
Buena Vista Needs Water

Rev. M. M. Bledsoe preached an eloquent sermon at St. Cloud yesterday afternoon, which was listened to by an earnest group of persons who came to attend the services.

The steamer Masama brought down twenty-five tons of hay from Wood river Saturday.

Mrs. Lockwood presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers to the St.
Cloud Sunday school yesterday, which were greatly appreciated.

Mr. Crumacker has a very fine garden near Shippington.

The Masama will pull the houseboat Lady Vera from the bank of the Upper lake, where it was left by the high waters.

Mr. Sherburn took a party across the lake yesterday in his launch Sparrow.

W. E. Coman of the Herald and Mr. Bonham had a delightful sail in a yacht on the Upper lake yesterday.
Klamath lake is an ideal body of water for boating, and an effort should be made to create an interest in this delightful sport.

The residents of Buena Vista addition need water, and need it badly.
They wish that the city would put in the promised mains.
