FAREWELL RECEPTION TO MR. AND MRS. BUTCHER

Friends Will Gather in the Christian Church Tonight to Wish Them Goodspeed

A farewell reception will be given to Mr. and Mrs. John T. Butcher at the Christian church this evening at 8 o'clock. All members and friends of the church and Bible school are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Butcher have been very earnest and enthusiastic workers in the church and have proven themselves to be true and consecrated Christians. The membership and their many friends regret very much their leaving, but trust they will be successful in their new field of work.

ORDER OF EAGLES HAS JOLLY GOOD TIME

Last night about fifty members of Crater Aerie No. 1616, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and a number of invited guests were entertained with a chicken mulligan and smoker in the Jodmen's hall, and everyone present had the time of his life.

The mulligan had been prepared by W. H. Dulaney, who acted as chef, and J. F. Morgan, his assistant, and everyone who ate it wanted to learn how to prepare the delicious concoction. There is no question but that those two will have to prepare the next feast that the Eagles have. The menu consisted of:

Chicken Mulligan Broth
Helm Sweet Pickles
Imported Queen Olives
Cold Steam Mineral Water
