BRIBER IN LOG BOOM IS SOURCE OF TROUBLE

J. F. Goeller's Boat House Destroyed and Telford's Home Nearly Wrecked

A jam of the logs which had been held by the boom across Link river caused the boom to break last night about 9:30, and for a time it looked as though serious damage would result. As it was, the boat house belonging to J. F. Goeller was demolished and the house occupied by H. C. Telford narrowly escaped destruction.

The motor boat which was in the Goeller boat house came near being demolished, and had it not been that the roof of the house fell on it and protected it from the force of the grinding logs it would have been crushed. As it was, it was not very badly damaged. Ray Telford managed to pull the boat from under the roof before the log jam became very thick and this was probably all that kept the boat from now being at the bottom of the river.

When the boom broke the logs swung around, and some of them struck the piling that supports the house occupied by H. C. Telford, and his family, which overhangs the river, and the corner piling was broken off. Had the logs swung a few feet farther up the river the whole house would have gone into the water, as all of the supports would have been knocked from under it. In that case there would probably have been some fatalities.

The logs were being held for use in the Klamath Lumber company's sawmill, and the intention of creating the jam was so as to cause the river to rise so that the logs which had been caught on the shallow places in the river above might be dislodged.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE DAY

Seats for the Pannore trio concert for Monday night are on sale at "The Wells." They can also be reserved at the same place.

The water company is laying a main to the city cemetery. The owners of lots there can soon have the opportunity of making this spot a fitting resting place for the departed loved ones.

The authorities from Salem will be here tonight to take John Joseph Kervin to the asylum in that city. The unfortunate man is the son of Hugh Kervin, who lives south of this city, on the Klamath river. He is 46 years old, and was adjudged insane this week.

Many voters are registering nowadays. An average of about twenty-four a day are getting their names on the books. In view of the many questions that will come up for consideration this fall every voter should see that his name is placed on the books as soon as possible, and thus avoid any possibility of losing his vote.

Colonel Wilkins took a ride in the same wagon from which he received his injury a few weeks ago, and he found that his injuries were by no means entirely well. He got into the wagon at the depot, intending to ride to the depot, but he rode only as far as the Baldwin garage before he had to get out and continue his journey on foot. The jolting of the wagon pained him so much that he could not remain in the vehicle.

United Press Service. TORONTO, July 22.—The offer of the minister of labor to furnish a board of arbitration for the Grand Trunk strike will probably be rejected.

The vice president of the order of conductors said today that the men were arbitrating the matter in their own way now, and were doing a good job, too.

MADRIS ORDERS THAT ALL PRISONERS BE SHOT

Intercepted Message Shows Nicaraguan President to Be a Bloody Monster

NEW ORLEANS, La., July 22.—President Madris of Nicaragua has ordered all revolutionary prisoners shot immediately, if an intercepted message purporting to have been sent by him to General Roberto is authentic.

Gonzales is in command of the Madris forces at San Ubaldo. Many insurgent prisoners are known to be under his care.

The intercepted message read: "I trust into your hands the salvation of the fatherland and the giving of a severe lesson to the revolutionaries who are in your neighborhood. Shoot, without fear or consideration, the revolutionaries whom you may capture by attack and the prisoners whom you may have. Give orders to leaders of your patrols to watch. There is danger in the road from San Ubaldo to Acayaga."

"MADRIS, Commanding General."

The message fell into the hands of the rebel general, Mena, who declared that on the same day two insurgents were executed at Charco Muerto. A copy was sent to the provisional government's local representative to be forwarded to the American state department.

DR. CRIPPEN IS SAFE FROM JUSTICE

Believed to Be Hiding in Andorra, From Which Place He Cannot Be Extradited

United Press Service.

LONDON, July 22.—Advice received here indicates that Dr. Crippen is in hiding in the Andorra republic, where he is practically immune from extradition. It is believed that he went there from the Hotel Vernet in Los Baños.

Andorra is in the Pyrenees, and has an area of 175 miles. The country has been independent since the time of Charlemagne, and communication with the outside world is limited. The natives are not willing to surrender foreigners to the authorities of their country.

And a Vacation Train, Maybe "Gracious!" exclaimed Mrs. Goodley, "just listen to the clergyman. I'm positive he's swearing. Evidently he's missed his vocation." "No," replied her husband; "I think it was his train."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Shops in Paris The subject of the article appeared in a French newspaper:

"There was found in the river this morning the body of a soldier cut to pieces and sewed up in a sack. The circumstances seem to preclude any suspicion of suicide."
